DOES EVERY PERSON HAVE A

It is often said that a person has a right to his own belief. If the Bible teaches this, every one ought to teach it. If the Bible does not so teach, then no one should teach it. Being a question of religion, it must be settled by the Bible. No ques-tion is settled unless it is settled right. No religious question is settled unless it is properly answered in the light of the scriptures.

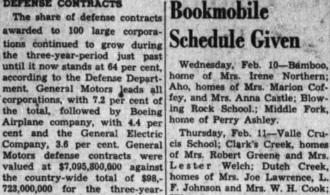

scriptures. Scripturally speaking, we do not have a right to believe anything religiously except the truth revealed in the Bible (2 Thes. 2: 12, 13). Jesus said, "And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free" (Jno. 8: 32). The truth must not only be loved and learned, but it must also be obeyed (1 Pet.

Abel offered his sacrifice by faith (Heb. 11: 4). Faith comes by hearing the word of God (Rom. 10: 17). Therefore, God taught Abel the kind of sacrifice to offer. God is no respector of person (Acts 10: 34, 35). Hence, Cain received the same instructions as Abel. He worshiped by opinion, according to his own idea—God refused his worship. Abel worshiped by faith as God commanded. Therefore, God accepted Abel's sacrifice and rejected Cain's.
