

News Of Week At Green Valley School

The United States Society of Zoology presented an animal show at our school recently. Mr. Christian de Kezzer demonstrated a number of rare animals from all parts of the world.

New Book Shelves
Our primary teacher feels that the small children should have their books on shelves low enough for them to reach. These shelves are now being installed in their rooms and they are quite pleased about them.

Mrs. Edmisten Visits School
Our county supervisor, Mrs. Desie Mae Edmisten was a visitor in our school last week. We are always glad to have her and she is always so willing to help out wherever she can. She is always particularly interested in the progress of the science program. Right now she is doing some special work in art with the idea of probably establishing more definite procedures for specific grades.

Report On Halloween Carnival
The Halloween Carnival receipts were approximately $375.00 and the expenses were $37.25 plus the cost of the turkey which will cost around ten dollars.

We feel that special mention here should go to Mr. J. D. Phillips who donated his popcorn machine and his own services in operating it. The boys and girls of the seventh grade did a good job of decorating the lunchroom for the carnival. The whole room had a festive look created with the pumpkins, cats, owls, witches, colored leaves and corn. Crepe paper hung from all the light fixtures.

The winners in the king and queen contest were: King, Delmas Greene of the fifth grade and Wanda Miller, queen of the second grade. 2nd place king, Leroy Coffey, 4th grade; 2nd place queen, Nancy Coffey, 5th grade.

The kings and queen for each grade were:
1st grade: Queen, Linda Proffitt; King, Gary Moretz.
2nd grade: Queen—Wanda Miller; King Butch Miller.
3rd Grade: Queen—Helen Lowalski; King, Jerry South.
4th Grade: Queen—Polly Clawson; King, Leroy Coffey.
5th Grade: Queen, Nancy Coffey; King, Delmas Greene.

6th Grade: Queen—Elaine Shoemaker; King, Allen Miller.
7th Grade: Queen—Barabara Penley; King, Austin Moretz.
8th Grade: Queen—Georgia Gail Norris; King, Alvin Stansberry.

Other contest winners were:
Costume Parade, adult—Mr. Troy Norris, Mrs. Tom Jackson.
Children—Mary Darwin Marsh, Jimmy Marsh, Albert Miller, Jr., Beth Williams.

The oldest man, Mr. George Lookabill; Turkey guessing, Mr. Russell Norris; Cake guessing, Mrs. C. R. McKinney; Bean guessing, Mrs. Minnie Lookabill, Mrs. Nancy Winebarger, Mrs. Pearl Lookabill; Baby contest, Maria Greene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Greene; Pumpkin guessing, Mrs. Clint Miller; Biggest family, The Ward Millers.

The rooms with the best country store exhibits were: Grammar grade, Mrs. Ruth Winkler; Primary, Mrs. Daisy Adams.
The judges who came to the school to make these decisions were: Mrs. Hamp Clawson, Mrs. Celia Greene.

Mr. E. B. Fox Leaves
The whole school and community have been quite fortunate in having Mr. E. B. Fox working in our school for the past quarter as a student teacher. He has taken an active part in all school and community activities and done most successful classroom teaching.

The faculty gave a covered dish supper for Mr. and Mrs. Fox at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Buchanan last Wednesday night. All of the faculty wives and husbands were invited. After the dinner Mrs. China Lavendar showed colored slides of her western trip last summer. The group also enjoyed circulating through the new addition that the Buchanans made to their home last summer.

The seventh grade class gave a surprise party for Mr. Fox on Friday before he left. The boys and girls had formed committees which provided an abundance of refreshments and most enjoyable games. Mr. Marsh was invited to the party.

4-H News
The Green Valley 4-H Club met Nov. 2. We had some songs and then the minutes were read. After that Miss Holcomb talked to us about washing dishes.

Mrs. Lavender's First Grade
We had a wonderful time getting ready for and attending our Halloween carnival. Gerry Moretz was the king and Linda Lee Proffitt the queen from our room.

We are very sorry to learn that David's father, Mr. John Hayes, is in the hospital.

We are glad to welcome Roy Rogers (Buckey) Wilson from the Winston-Salem school into our room.

Della Mae Cook, Sharon Norris and Judy Ann Johnson have celebrated their birthdays recently.

Mrs. Wright's Grades
Many of us have read twenty-five books this year. We think Johnny Jones is our best reader, and he makes one hundred on spelling every day.

Dennis Hicks is absent because of sickness.
This is the month of Thanksgiving, and we want to begin it by telling all these people how much we thank them for their patience and kindness to us. The ladies in the lunchroom, Mr. South, Mr. Marsh, and our bus drivers, who all work hard to make us comfortable and happy.

Mrs. Greene's Third Grade
Our king and queen, Jerry South and Helen Zowadski won third places in the contest.

Some of the boys, and girls in our room have been sick.

On Friday afternoons we are working on some surprises for our mothers soon.

We are enjoying the paper puppets which each boy and girl made. Also some new charts and pictures in our room.

Fifth Grade News
Delmos Greene was crowned king of the Greene Valley Halloween Carnival, and Nancy Coffey had the next highest number of votes for queen.

Each room was asked to fix a table or display for the country store. Our room received first prize in the grammar grade division.

The following boys and girls still have perfect attendance for the year: Earlene Jones, Joyce Winebarger, Dawn Bryan, Eula Jean Davis, Linda Carroll, Betty Idol, Jeannie Greene, Nancy Coffey, Dewey Culler, Jimmy Wilson, Delmos Greene, Jerry Winebarger, Grady Miller, and Joe Norris.

Linda Carroll has a birthday on November 21.

The fifth and sixth grades enjoyed practicing and giving a circus program for the benefit of our classroom's king and queen. This same program will be presented at our P. T. A. meeting on Thursday night.

Mrs. Buchanan's Seventh Grade
We have been studying the Colonial people. We have chosen committees to make parts of a Colonial Colony.

Paul Said To Mr. Ed:

The customer settled himself and let the barber put the towel around him.
Customer: "Before we start, I know the weather's awful, I don't care who wins the next big fight, and I don't bet on the horse races, and I know I'm getting thin on top, but I don't mind that. Now get on with it!"
Barber: "Well sir, if you don't mind, I'll be able to concentrate better if you don't talk so much."
