Judge Rules Court Is Lacking In Weed Case

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 7.—Federal Judge Henry L. Brooks today ruled his court lacks jurisdiction to try a $1,000,000 law-suit brought by North Carolina farmers against the Tennessee Burley Tobacco Growers Association.

The Louisville, Ky., judge's ruling was unexpected and he said the decision likely would be "appealed to the Sixth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals" in Cincinnati. The trial opened today and was expected to last a week.

Fred Paryin, attorney for the plaintiffs, said he was uncertain whether the case would be appealed but Brooks said he was preparing a written memorandum "so that it will be easier for them to follow the court's reasoning in preparation for an appeal."

The plaintiffs were relying on two federal statutes, Judge Brooks said, and under both sections the amount in controversy must exceed $3,000.

Individual claims of growers in the lawsuit amounted to much less than that, he said.

"It appears to me that the claims in this case are separate. The individual growers are entitled only to the particular amount

Mrs. Barber Is Taken By Death

Winston-Salem, Jan. 4.—Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Ross Barber, 68, of Highland Avenue, Boone, wife of Robert L. Barber, will be conducted at 2 p. m. today at Vogler's Chapel by the Rev. Burton Rights and the Rev. J. K. Parker Jr.

Burial will be in Moravian Graveyard.

Nephews will serve as pallbearers.

Mrs. Barber, a former resident of Winston-Salem, died yesterday at her home after a serious illness of one month. She had been in declining health for six years.

She was born Nov. 7, 1890, in Stanley County, a daughter of Richard J. and Martha Ivey Ross. She was married June 1, 1910 to Mr. Barber.

She moved to Boone with her husband shortly after his retirement in 1942 from R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company.

Mrs. Barber was a member of the Trinity Moravian Church in Winston-Salem.

She is survived by her husband; a daughter, Mrs. J. C. Yoder of Boone; a sister, Mrs. T. G. Pace of Hopewell, Va.; and two grandchildren.

Winchester To Aid County Vets

The North Carolina Veterans Commission will have a representative, Jack C. Winchester, District Officer, in the County Building, Boone, on Friday, January 18, from 8:30 a. m. to 12:00 noon.

Mr. Winchester stated there are Veterans Administration benefit entitlement of which many eligible persons are not taking advantage. The War Orphans Education Act of 1956 awards $110 monthly to children, whose real or adoptive parent or parents' death was the result of wartime service, death having been in service or after separation. These benefits extend for 36 months to each child who qualifies. All children who qualify as stated above and had not reached their 23rd birthday by June 29, 1956, may apply now. These educational benefits are to be used in most cases above high school level and in any state approved college, business school, trade school etc. throughout the United States. Qualified persons who have partly completed college may still use the benefits which may also be used for graduate work.

Other benefits and services available for veterans are VA hospitalization, pension, compensation, training, employment rights, Social Security, review of discharge or separation, and so forth.

John H. Grimes Succumbs At 44

John Henry Grimes, colored, former Boone resident, died in New York, N. Y., on December 30. He was 44 years of age.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Sunday, January 6, at the Menonite Brethren Church of Boone, with the Rev. Ronda Horton and the Rev. Rock Hatton officiating. Burial was in the Clarissa Hill Cemetery.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Charity McCurtis Grimes of New York City; his father, John Grimes of Boone, and the following brothers and sisters, all of Boone: Paul Grimes, Mrs. Lucille Goines, Mrs. Rachel Whittington, and Mrs. Jessie Horton. Also surviving are a brother and seven sisters who reside in New York and other states.

STEALS HOUSE AND LOT

London, England—James Kirby, 44, noticing a house which had been vacant for a long time, fraudulently had himself entered as the owner in the borough land register. He then proceeded to sell both the house and land to a customer, who has since resold it. The real owner, Mrs. Kathleen Gray, who hadn't been able to rent the house since 1940 because it was in bad repair, agreed to let the transactions stand and the land Registry Office paid her $2,200 as compensation. Kirby is serving a year in jail for stealing the house and lot.

HER WINDOW

The Bennetts live here. That's Grandmother Bennett's Bible on the window sill, and the whole family goes to the church across the snow covered field.

John Bennett works in the local bank. Martha, his wife, is president of the PTA, and they have three lovely children. Grandmother Bennett has been living with them for the past couple of years, since she broke her hip. She can't always get to church in wintertime and that's why she calls this her window. When she can't be in church, it helps to be able to see it.

To her, the church steeple represents a great many things, and brings back many memories. Her son was married in that church. Her husband was buried from it. Her grandchildren were christened in it.

The Church has helped her to bear grief, in hours of sorrow; and it has seemed to put a benediction upon her happiness, in times of joy. Most important of all, whatever the occasion, whatever the crisis... the Church has always been there.

To Grandmother Bennett, the most comforting thing in the world is knowing that it always will be there.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and social support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FIVE NEW FORD glamour wagons

long, low and loaded with Go!

Leave it to the station wagon leader to make the big news for '57! And what news! Wagons so big, so full of fine-car prestige that you'll wonder how it can be done at low Ford prices.

If your choice is the Country Squire, you'll be proud to pull up at the finest places in this new glamour wagon with its wood-like trim.

If your needs call for a 6-passenger wagon with four doors, you'll love the new Country Sedan. It has almost nine feet of loadspace—nearly a foot more than ever before.

There's still another 4-door Country Sedan. It has the extra third seat for 9-passenger room. And, as in all Ford wagons for '57, you have the new single-control handle which opens both the wrap-around liftgate and tailgate with one motion. And they can't be opened from inside!

There's good news, too, about Ford's popular Ranch Wagon. This 6-passenger, 2-door model features Ford's new subdued tones, and smart interiors which defy muddy little shoes and drippy chocolate cups.

In the wonderful way that Ford can take a fine thing and make it even finer, the Del Rio Ranch Wagon goes beyond the Ranch Wagon in style, fabrics and trim.

Better take a Ford wagon for a spin. You'll agree that for styling it's a sweetheart... for work and power, it's an obedient slave!

How '57 Fords have toughest shockdown cranks in history!

The '57 Ford broke 426 without and international records from 1 kilometer to 50,000 miles at Bonneville, Utah. For 50,000 miles, the '57 Fords averaged over 107 and 108 mph respectively. This time included all pit stops... the greatest endurance test of all time!
