MR. AND MRS. FORREST LYNN EVERETTE

Miss Glenna Louise Robinson became the bride of Mr. Forrest Lynn Everett, Jr. of Jefferson, Ohio, in a double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. Bernie Oliver in the Beaver Dam Baptist Church, Saturday, December 22.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli and pink roses decorated the church altar. Pianist was Miss Lois Oliver.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess style dress of white wool, fashioned with three quarter length sleeves and a roll collar. She wore a small white hat with short veil. She carried a purple orchid surrounded by lillies of the valley, with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Phyllis Norris of Sherwood, as maid of honor, wore a princess style dress of blue wool, featuring a v-neckline and short sleeves. She wore a matching hat and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids, Miss Blanda Robinson, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Lee Creed, both of Reese, wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor, with matching headbands and similar bouquets.

Best man was Mr. Blain Norris, uncle of the bride. Ushers were Ernest Stout and Russell Swift, both of Reese.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Serving were Mrs. Cecil Swift and Miss Ella Norris.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Robinson of Reese was graduated from Bethel High School. She attended Steed College of Technology in Johnson City, Tennessee for one year.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Everett of Jefferson, Ohio, was graduated from Jefferson High School and is in the U. S. Navy, stationed at Norfolk, Va., where they will reside following their wedding trip to visit the groom's parents in Jefferson, Ohio.

Brushy Fork Club Meets

Brushy Fork Home Demonstration Club met Thursday night, January 17th at the home of Mrs. Juanita Wilson. The meeting was called to order by the president. Each member gave a Bible verse for devotional and the club collect was repeated by all. The secretary read the minutes of last meeting. Year books were then filled out for 1957 with officers, project leaders, demonstrations for each month and places to meet.

Miss Jean Childers gave an interesting demonstration on "Take a Look at Your Self." For recreation Misses Wanda Wilson and Kathryn Warren played and sang. Mrs. Wilson served delicious refreshments to nine members and five visitors. She was assisted by Mrs. Elsie Danner.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ivanlee Dancy.

Golden Wedding Is Observed

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wyke celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at their home in Boone at an Open House from 2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. Sunday. Some 150 guests called during the afternoon.

Arrangements of yellow and gold assorted flowers and gold ribbon bows were used on the tables and throughout the house as decorations. The table from which punch and cake were served to the guests was covered with a beautiful Irish Linen Damask cloth, and centered with the four-tiered cake.

The many beautiful gifts were displayed in an adjoining room on small tables decorated with gold ribbon bows.

Their four children, who were all present, include Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wyke and family of Hickory, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wyke and family of Lenoir, Mr. and Mrs. David Greene and son, Glen, of Knoxville, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Henly and daughter, Kim, of Knoxville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyke were married in 1907 and in addition to their children they have 12 grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

Out-of-town guests for the celebration were Mrs. C. H. Henley, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Weens, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rains, all of Knoxville, and Gene Wyke of Greensboro.

Likes Sketches

Dear Mr. Rivers:

Enclosed please find check for $2.00 covering renewal of my subscription to the "Watauga Democrat" for another year.

The pleasure I get from reading the column by "Stretch" Rollins is worth two bucks a year, not to mention all the other fine features of the "Democrat."

WELL, WILL IT?

Omaha, Neb.—Local postoffice officials were posed with a real question recently. A clerk weighed a letter for a woman patron and handed it back to her with the comment it was too heavy and would need another stamp. "Well," shrugged the woman, "how will putting another stamp on it make it lighter?"
