year. Mary will serve as vice-president during the same year, according to the student council constitution.

Both Jerry and Mary made excellent campaign speeches on April 1.

The two will succeed Betty Swain, president, and Bobby Reynolds, vice-president, both seniors.

STUDENT COUNCIL CONGRESS

Mary Lawrence and Linda Wey were chosen by Appalachian High School Student Council to represent the council at the Western District of the Student Council Congress, Friday, March 29, at Marion Senior High School in Marion.

Mr. Fred Gragg, sponsor of the student council of Appalachian High School accompanied Linda and Mary on the trip.

Approximately 114 delegates from 138 schools attended and were divided into five groups for round-table discussions on student council problems and activities.

The Student Council Congress sponsored a banquet and dance on Friday night at the Lake Tahoma Steak House in Marion.

Citizen Of The Week

John Day, a ninth grader in

Jerry West, a member of Mr. Jack Groce's homeroom and the son of Rev. and Mrs. Rex W. West of Boone, was elected as Appalachian High School Student Body President, April 3, by popular vote of the student body.

Jerry defeated Mary Lawrence for the presidency, the two having been nominated out of forty-four eligible juniors, to serve as president during the 1957-58 school

Thrifty Meals With Pork

Pork is one of the richest natural sources of vitamin B. It has the same high quality complete protein found in all meats. Whether it be a regal loin roast of pork or homey spare ribs, every cut of pork has the same important nutrition. Old-fashioned favorites are those pictured.

- Bacon and Corn Sauté
- 12 bacon slices
  - 1 can (1 pound) whole kernel corn
  - 1/4 cup finely chopped onion
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
  - 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
  - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- Place bacon slices in cold skillet. Cook over low heat, turning occasionally, until desired degree of crispness. Remove bacon; drain on absorbent paper. Pour off all but 2 tablespoons of the drippings. Add onion and pepper; cook until onion is tender, but not brown. Drain corn; add liquid to skillet and boil rapidly until reduced to approximately 1/4 cup. Add corn, salt and pepper; top with bacon slices. Heat to serving temperature.
- YIELD: 3 servings.
- Sausage and Apple Grill
- 1 pound sausage meat
  - 3 apples, cored and sliced
  - 1/4 cup brown sugar
- Form sausage into 6 patties. Place in skillet. Brown on both sides, pouring off fat as it accumulates, about 15 minutes. Remove sausage; pour off all but 3 tablespoons drippings. Add apple slices; sprinkle with brown sugar. Cover; cook over low heat 10 minutes. Add sausage; heat to serving temperature.
- YIELD: 3 servings.

Takes Position In Tennessee

Juella Hampton, formerly of Boone, is now employed in Johnson City, Tenn. She is a graduate of Appalachian High School and has completed a secretarial course at Steed College of Technology about a year ago, and has received many benefits from the course.

Her first job was cashier at the Memorial Hospital. Another of her duties at that time was to discharge patients on their leaving the hospital.

Three months later the assistant administrator of the hospital asked her to take the position of auditing the cashier's work which was another step ahead toward her present position now as secretary and bookkeeper to the controller of the hospital, Mr. Eldridge H. Price. She is still over the auditor's work.

Juella is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darius Hampton of Bamboo. She is very active in church work at Unaka Baptist Church, and is treasurer of the Y. W. A.'s.

Mrs. Farthing's First Grade

The students in the first grade are glad to welcome Joyce Rominger back to their class. Joyce has been going to school in Randolph County.

We have been drawing Easter bunnies and writing stories about Easter. We are planning to have an Easter party.

The students who made honor grades last month are: Dianne Farthing, Sharon Love, Clark Mixon, Billy Dishman, Carolyn Moody, Evelyn Rominger, Danny Farthing, Elvira Presnell, Roy Keller, Von Dishman, Eddie Proffitt, Johnny Tester, and Lennie Trivette.

Miss Farthing's Second Grade

The second graders have been having lots of fun drawing Easter pictures to put up in their room. They have already put up a picture of ducks sailing on the water. Mr. Bunny with his basket of colored eggs, and the usual spring flowers.

Mrs. Perry's Third Grade

There have been some new students to join the third grade. They are: Ruth Ann Eggers from the Wade Park School in Cleveland, Ohio; Wanda Rominger from Ramsey School in Randolph County and Shirley Rominger from Liberty School in Randolph County.

Some of the students have been absent because of colds this month.

Mrs. Robinson's Fourth Grade

The boys and girls in the fourth grade have had a good school year so far. They have worked hard, read lots of books and have had lots of fun playing. We have lots more work to complete before school is out.

their play which will be given sometime this month. The name of the play is "Hillbilly Courtship". Members of the cast are: Shirley Ward, Floyd Millspaugh, Mildred Vines, Joyce Haggaman, Kaye Campbell, Ernest Stolt, Eugene Winebarger, Gerald Lawrence, Johnny Vines, Walter McGuire, Blaine Cornette, Anne Phillips, Loma Hicks, Ruby Trivette, Lois Taylor, and Jean Cox. The director is Mrs. Kathy Wallace.

FARM INCOME

U. S. farm income last year totaled $11,536,000,000, an increase of four per cent over that for the previous year, according to the Agriculture Department. Critics of the Eisenhower Administration, however, using another set of figures, fixed farm income at $11,586,000,000, about eight-tenths one per cent below another estimated total of 1955.

Scouts Given Merit Badges

Two Scouts of Troop 55 in Perksville passed requirements for merit badges Monday before a board of review. Joe Miller displayed proof of enough merit badges to receive the Bronze Palm. This is the award following Eagle Scout, which Joe received in 1952.

Charles Bumgarner passed the requirements for First Aid merit badge which will be awarded him at the next Scout Court of Honor which will be held Monday, April 29.

R. D. Hodges, Jr., is scoutmaster of Troop 55, which is sponsored by the Perkinsville Baptist Church.

The next board of review, according to advancement chairman, Dr. Lee Reynolds, is scheduled for 6:30 p. m. Monday, April 22. All scouts who have passed requirements for advancement are requested to be at the Boone Methodist Church for review at that time.
