Wool Bags Here

Notice to farmers who sold wool in the 1957 Wool Pool. The wool bags that were supposed to be received in exchange for those taken in the pool have been received at the County Farm Agents office. All farmers who are to get one of these bags is requested to do so as soon as possible as we do not have sufficient storage space for them.

"OPEN HOUSE" GUESTS.—Some 500 persons visited the Blue Ridge Electric Membership Corporation's new building on the Blowing Rock Road Wednesday, June 12, in response to their "open house" invitation. Pictured as they registered for door prizes under the supervision of Mrs. Barbara Deverick (left) office manager of Lenoir, are Miss Donna Hodges, Mrs. Don Hodges, and Miss Alma Hodges. The front of the building is shown at right.

'Fashions In Flowers' Theme Of Boone Flower Show July 11-12

Boone's 1957 Flower Show, July 11-12, is eagerly anticipated by flower growers and lovers throughout this area. An affair of great interest for exhibitors and visitors alike, this annual show presents specimens of the many beautiful flowers which are grown by local gardeners. Exhibits this year will be arranged to develop the theme "Fashions in Flowers."

The following rules have been compiled by the sponsors and will be of interest to all exhibitors.

Competition is open to any non-professional gardener in the Appalachian area.

Plants on the State Conservation List may not be used in design.

Containers and accessories entered at owner's risk. All should be marked with owner's name.

Judging will be according to National Council Standards. Judges' decisions will be final.

Plant materials for arrangements may be obtained from any source, but arrangements must be made by exhibitor.

After entry has been accepted, exhibitor must provide a substitute if she is unable to exhibit in closed classes.

Clipped foliage is permitted, but no artificial grooming such as tinting or painting will be allowed.

If all plant material used in an arrangement has been grown by the exhibitor, a gold star will be placed on entry card.

Entries will be accepted as follows:

Potted plants: July 10, 3:30-4:30 p. m. All other exhibits: July 11, 7:30-11:00 a. m. Exhibits registered after 11:00 a. m. will be non-competitive. Exhibits should be removed after 8:00 p. m. July 12 and must be removed by 8:30 a. m. July 13. Flower show dismantling committee cannot be responsible for items left in hall after this time.

Following is a descriptive list of arrangement designs suggested to carry out the theme "Fashions in Flowers."
