Local Affairs

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Casey attended the graduation of their children, Charles Marvin and Connie Mae, the first of this month. Charles graduated from the Gordon Divinity School in Beverly Farms, Mass., on June 3 with a Bachelor of Divinity degree. Connie graduated from the New England School of Theology in Brookline, Mass., on June 5 with an A. B. degree in Theology.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Wilson of Cleveland, Ohio are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Earl Bumgarner, and Mr. Bumgarner of Mabel. Mr. Wilson entered Oteen Veterans Hospital on June 11 for an indefinite time. Mrs. Wilson will remain with her daughter at Mabel while Mr. Wilson is in the hospital. Also visiting in the Bumgarner home last week were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hodges of Oxford, Pennsylvania.

Visitors with Mrs. I. G. Greene of Perkinsville over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miley of Prospect, Ohio, Mrs. Flora Robeson of Tarboro, Mrs. Callie Little and daughter, Shirley, of Denver, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Storie and daughter, Beulah, of Lenoir, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cole and family, and Mrs. Alma Barlow and three sons, all of Boone.

A party consisting of Chief Bos'n and Mrs. L. G. Farthing, Mr. and Mrs. George Judy, Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Glenn, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Aldridge of Hickory, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Sowder of North Wilkesboro and Dr. and Mrs. Ray Lawrence of Boone, had dinner at the Farm House Saturday evening and later attended the big flash at the Horn in the West. Chief Farthing will report to the USS Albemarle at Philadelphia Naval Shipyard this week for duty.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Shepherd and daughter, Clara Mae, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. John Shepherd of Norfolk, Virginia. While they were there, they witnessed the International Naval Review of fourteen nations of the NATO organization. Visits were made to the Norfolk Naval Air Base and the naval base where all these ships were anchored. Some of the ships they visited were the naval aircraft carrier, the USS Saratoga, the British carrier, Royal Ark, the Spanish sailing vessel, Don Juan, the USS Battleship

Iowa and others. They also viewed the naval parade of all these nations on Saturday.

Scarlett-Perry Vows Solemnized

Miss Alice Marie Scarlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Scarlett of Mebane, became the bride of Joe Carroll Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Perry of Route 2, Mebane, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Oak Grove Baptist Church.

The Rev. Harley Anderson, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride and groom entered the church together unattended.

Miss Rebecca Patterson and Mrs. John Mooningham, both of Mebane, furnished the music. Ushers included Jimmie Murray, cousin of the bride, and Dale Perry, brother of the groom.

The couple will be at home at Route 2, Mebane, after a trip through the Smoky Mountains.

Luncheon Honors Miss Peggy Curtin

Miss Peggy Curtin, daughter of Mr. John Curtin of New York, who is the bride-elect of Jerry White, son of Mr. and Mrs. George White of Boone, was honored at a luncheon given by Mrs. L. H. Owsley at the Daniel Boone Hotel on Thursday.

The centerpiece was a lovely arrangement of pale pink carnations and baby breath in a silver container. Places for the guests were marked with pink bridal place cards and favors.

Miss Curtin wore a frock of white satin-finished cotton embroidered with tiny pink flowers. Her corsage was of white carnations tied with pink net and ribbons. She was presented a gift of linen.

Guests were Misses Peggy Curtin, Mary Louise and Eileen White, Betty Cooke, Sue and Joyce Littleton, Joyce Tuckwiller, Pat Brady, Cindy Klutz and Mrs. George White and Mrs. Joe Brady.

The Sands Home Demonstration club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Raymond Jones. The devotional was given by Mrs. Mary Brown. "Accessories for the Home" was the demonstration given by the home agent.

The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Rebecca. The July meeting will be with Mrs. C. G. Hodges.

Miss Hagaman Is Bride Of Mr. Sipe

MORGANTON, N. C., June 11—Calvary Lutheran Church in Morganton was the setting for the marriage of Miss Margaret Hagaman to Kenneth Roscoe Sipe on Friday evening at 6 o'clock, June 7.

Rev. John H. Sigmon, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was furnished by Miss Azalee Wilson of Boone, soloist, and Mrs. John H. Sigmon, organist. Miss Wilson sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "O Perfect Love." Mrs. Sigmon played "Barcarolle," "Traumerel," and "Largo." The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride and groom entered the church together and were unattended.

The bride wore a street-length dress of white nylon over maize taffeta designed with a maize cummerbund and a floating panel in the back. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Vance Brackett served as usher. Mrs. Sipe is the daughter of Mrs. John S. Hagaman and the late Rev. Mr. Hagaman of Boone. She is employed at Southern Bell Telephone Company. Mr. Sipe is the son of Mrs. Roscoe Sipe and the late Mr. Sipe of Morganton. He is employed at Cordell's Easo Service at Drexel.

Mrs. Roscoe Sipe entertained the bridal party and immediate families at a cake cutting Thursday.

The out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. John S. Hagaman, Misses Janice and Barbara Hagaman, Jack Hagaman, Ivy Wilson, and Miss Azalee Wilson, all of Zionville; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lytle of Hendersonville; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sipe and son, Randy, of China Grove; Mrs. Eugene Shankle and daughter, Nita, and Miss Betty Sipe of Landis.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Monroe Glass, of South Hill, announce the engagement of their daughter, Harriette Dell, to William Herndon Mast, son of Mr. and Mrs. David P. Mast, of Sugar Grove.

Miss Glass is a student at Madison College, Harrisonburg, where she is a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority.

Mr. Mast is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, where he is a member of Kappa Psi Fraternity.

A Fall wedding is planned.
