Carmel Baptist Church. The bride's father and pastor of the Church, Rev. C. O. Vance, assisted by her uncle, Rev. H. D. Vance of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, officiated using the double ring ceremony.

The program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. George Cole, Jr. of Asheville, organist and Mr. Glenn Miller of Boone, vocalist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace over candlelight satin fashioned with a high Queen Anne collar. The French illusion yoke was outlined with iridescent sequins and seed pearls and the long tightly fitted sleeves ended in cello points over the hands. The full skirt, ending in a chapel train, was attached to a fitted bodice. She wore a fingertip veil attached to a cap of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of tube roses centered with a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Darrell Wilson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of taffeta of Copen Blue with a soft cowl neckline. The empire waistline came to points over a bouffant skirt, and the folds of taffeta formed the back of the neckline and were released into flowing hemline panels. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ralph Williams of Boone and Miss Louise Ross of Spruce Pine. They wore dresses of the same style as the matron of honor in Dubarry Coral. The honor attendants carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Misses Daphne and Angela Martin of Asheville were the flower girls. They carried baskets of pink rose petals.

Mr. Ben Mast of Chapel Hill served as the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Mr. Darrel Wilson of Winston-Salem and Mr. Clarence Martin of Asheville.
