Appalachian High's football season will be opened on Friday night, September 6 at 8:00 o'clock when the Blue Devils meet Glen Alpine, last year's district final-

From all appearances this game will be a close contest. The Blue Devils have started out this season with very fine attendance and good hard work. Coaches Groce, Gabriel and Booker believe that there is every prospect that this game will be the start of one of Appalachian's best seasons.

So far, approximately forty boys have turned out for the team. This year's team includes

Soil Bank Aids

Watauga county farmers who their wheat acreage in the Soil Bank stand to benefit in more than one way, according to Dwight Cable, chairman of the Agricultural Cody Yasinsac, Richard Tisdel, Stabilization and Conservation County Committee. Many farmers in this county who have been plagued with drought or flooding. of low fields will have a special interest in a secondary but very important income protection advantage provided through ASC's Acreage Reserve Program. Mr. Cable explained that farmers who put acreage in the reserve are guaranteed a minimum income for this land even if later on some natural disaster hits their farm.

> Other farmers who are in bad health or who are forced to work full time off the farm are finding the Soil Bank to be a welcome source of additional income providing amounts nearly equal to the net return that would have been realized had the acreage been
