Hodges Gap Club Meeting

Mrs. Howard Carlson was hostess to the Hodges Gap Home Demonstration Club in her home, Hill Crest Farm, Friday.

Mrs. A. E. Vannoy sang the devotional in observance of Mother's Day and read "In Flanders Field" in observance of Armed Forces Day.

Mrs. Alvin Young, the president, suggested the club give a vote of thanks to Mrs. Sherman Holler for her work toward planning the home nursing course being taken by five members of the Hodges Gap Club and four members from the Brushy Fork club. Mrs. Stanley Harris is instructor.

Mrs. Roy Williams, Jr., gave a report as Family Life chairman, wondering if the home had not become just a "filling station" rather than a family home.

Mrs. Frank Brown gave a project leaders report on Home Beautification, having had the experience of recently redecorating her own home.

Miss Jean Childers gave an interesting and timely demonstration on home freezers, how to prepare and store home grown as well as commercially packaged foods.

As the highlight of the meeting the club had as their guest, Miss Aysie Baysal, specialist in home economics from Imlil, Turkey, who told the members about methods of food preservation in her land.

One of Miss Baysal's instructors also had visited Watauga county several years ago and had been a guest of Mrs. Carlson while here. Miss Baysal took colored slides of Mrs. Carlson's weaving to show on her return to Turkey.

Music And Art Dinner Is Held

The music and art department of the Boone Woman's Club met at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Barnett at Valle Crucis for their annual covered dish dinner each May. Husbands were honor guests.

Mrs. Clyde Wineberger, chairman, who has been absent for several months because of illness, was present at the meeting and presided at a brief business session.

The program consisted of music by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alvarez, who played popular numbers on the accordion, and led in group singing of familiar songs.

"Hobby" articles of the members were displayed and the rest of the program consisted of admiring the beautiful view from the Barnett house.

The menu consisted of chicken pies topped with tiny biscuits, delicious congealed salad, escaloped potatoes, peas, relish, rolls, coffee and angel food cake filled with frozen wild strawberries.

The bride and bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Muder were honor guests. They were presented with a gift from the music and art members.

The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Winkler.

FLUORESCENT AIRPLANES?

Famed Ballet To Feature Dance Recital

"The Sleeping Beauty," one of the most famous ballets of all time, will be the chief attraction of the annual recital of Nancy F. Cook's school of dance on Saturday evening, May 24. The program will be given at the Boone Elementary School at 8:00 o'clock, and the public is cordially invited without admission charge.

Though arranged by Mrs. Cook in a version to fit younger dancers, the essential story will be retained, with Tchaikowski's music and the group numbers and solos made famous in St. Petersburg, London, Paris, and New York by such great performers as Nijinska, Margot Fonteyn, Anton Dolin, Irina Baronova, and many others.

Mollie Agie will dance the role of Princess Aurora, with Gilbert Pendergrass of Great Falls, South Carolina, as the prince. About 30 young dancers from Boone, Blowing Rock, Newland and Crossnore will perform solos and group numbers.

The ballet is based on the ever-popular fairy tale by Perrault.
