Mollie Agle To Start Summer School Of Dance

Mollie Agle has announced June 23 as the starting date for her Summer School of Dance and will be at the Boone Elementary School gymnasium at one-thirty p. m. on that day for the purpose of registering students for classes.

There will be sessions for three different age groups; the baby class will be for children four and five years old and will meet at two o'clock on Tuesdays and Fridays; Children aged 7 to 10 will meet at two o'clock on Mondays and Thursdays; and students from age 11 will meet at three o'clock on Mondays and Thursdays. All classes will be held at the Elementary School gymnasium and the school will offer ballet, tap, modern, and acrobatic dancing.

This will be Miss Agle's first year as full director of a dance school. She has served as assistant to Mrs. Nancy F. Cook for some time, and has had training in class teaching. Mrs. Cook, who is not conducting her own school of dance this summer, has recommended Mollie's classes to her students. Mollie has studied extensively with Mrs. Cook, specializing in classic ballet, and has worked with Mr. Louis Nunnery, choreographer and dance director for the Cherokee drama, "Unto These Hills." In Charlotte and Beasemer City she worked with Mrs. Shirley Cauthen, whose specialty is modern dance.

After a trip to the Smoky Mountains the couple will live in Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Elliott will graduate from Appalachian State Teachers College in November. Her husband is a senior at the University of North Carolina.

Return Home From Mars Hill

Tom and Mary Lawrence, son and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. Ray Lawrence have returned home from Mars Hill College.

Tom was graduated June 2 and will enter the School of Dramatic Arts at Northwestern University in September. He is staff announcer at radio station WKBC in North Wilkesboro this summer. Tom participated in numerous dramatic and forensic events during his three years at Mars Hill. He was president of the Dramatic Arts and was recipient of the best actor award in 1957. He was narrator of the Mars Hill Touring Choir for two years.

Mary was also a member of the choir. She was active in dramatics and received the best actress award in 1958. She was elected vice-president of the freshman class and was May court attendant. She will return to Mars Hill in September as president of her dormitory and also president of the Clio Literary Society.

Fashion Notes

It will seem that the fall look can be summed up in two words: trapeze and chemise. The new clothes are unpinched but unbaggy. The waist is lost, but high rounded bosoms, sleek hips and beautiful legs are even more evident.

The belt, where there is one, ties high under the bosom, or circles the hips.

Sweaters will be bulky, fuzzy, and in many cases, nearly knee-length. This long sweater should be very popular with college girls. Sweaters and all kinds of knitted garments will be very important.

The walking suit will be outstanding. Both long jackets and short coats are often accompanied by short, narrow skirts.

Evening clothes are made of bulky "outdoorsy" brightly-colored fabrics. They have a soft and completely feminine look.

Fabrics for dresses and shirt are fleecy, downy, woolly wools. Mohair will be a favorite. Blanket plaids will be news. Chiffon in brilliant and brassy colors will be the outstanding evening fabric.
