Woody Herman To Provide Music For May Day Dance

Woody Herman and his band will play for the annual May Day Dance this spring on the Appalachian State Teachers College campus.

Ron Champion of Forest City, president of the junior class, announced that Herman's appearance will be backed by the four classes of the student body.

Herman's fee is $2,000, Champion explained. With $400 from each class, plus money which the Men's "A" (athletic) Club has promised, the band is being secured with only nominal financial burden on any one organization or class, he said.

According to a recent coast to coast survey, Woody Herman is rated as being number three band of the United States. He is placed at the top along with Benny Goodman and Louis Armstrong.

Parkway Travel Shows Increase Over 1959

Travel on the Bluff District for the month of January was 8.5 percent increase over the same period last year. The increase is attributed to the mild weather so far this year and the Parkway was closed only 11 days the past month as compared to 19 days last January.

The Parkway will continue to be closed when there are hazardous driving conditions and we would like for everyone to avoid using the Parkway when the road closed signs are out.

Civil War Centennial Curtain Raises Jan. 1

Washington, D. C.—The curtain on the Civil War Centennial will be raised next January 1 with all the formality and tribute an appreciative nation can accord the memory of the men on both sides who fought to settle the greatest issue America ever faced.

This announcement was made here today by Maj. Gen. U. S. Grant, 3rd, chairman of the National Civil War Centennial Commission, who reminded that the kickoff date will inaugurate the greatest commemorative observance ever participated in by Americans, a five-year period during which organized effort will be made to bring the nation's history into proper focus.

Someone has said, pointed out General Grant, that "the basic reason for official commemoration of the Civil War should be to impress and re-impress our people, especially the young, with the terrific price paid for this Union of states which we all enjoy so casually today."

This official observance, under the auspices of the national government, explained the chairman, affords a tremendous series of opportunities to fire the soul with the true spirit of patriotism through new understanding and deep appreciation of "the spirit of those on both sides of that struggle whose intense convictions and personal sacrifices to defend them are simply without parallel in our history."

As a token of the official beginning of the Centennial, he said, President Eisenhower will be asked to issue a proclamation inviting and urging every American to participate in the series of programs planned at the grass-roots level and coordinated at National Centennial Headquarters in Washington. Many of these already are well along in the planning stage, while the 40 state Centennial commissions now in existence are working constantly to develop them further.

National Scout headquarters are located at New Brunswick, New Jersey.

LOOK AT THE LOWER PRICES

List prices as much as $76.05 lower on popular models with popular equipment

The '60 Chevrolet models most people buy, equipped the way most people want them, are actually priced lower than last year's models. This two-tone Bel Air V8 sedan, for example—with Turboglide, push-button radio and de luxe heater—lists for a whole $76.05 less! Prices are lower for all comparable V8 models throughout the line. Also for all comparable 6-cylinder models with Powerglide. Yet Chevy's loaded with more of the things that put pleasure into owning a car. (Just look at the list!) It's the greatest year yet to get into a Chevy!

Softer, more silent ride with coil springs at all four wheels and new butyl rubber-cushioned body mounts.

Big brakes for quicker, surer stops. Rivetless bonded linings mean they last longer, too.

More room to relax in. Chevy sedans offer roomier seating than any car in their class. Lower, narrower transmission tunnel means more foot room.

Only full wraparound windshield among the leading low-priced cars.

Electric windshield wipers keep sweeping even when you speed up to pass.

Vent windows crank open and closed. So much simpler than fighting those tricky little catches.

Keyless locking of all doors. Quick and easy. The same key opens door, glovebox, trunk and starts the car.

Economy Turbo-Fire V8. Or how to get up to 10% more miles per gallon of regular and still have lots of "git."

Thriftest 6 in any full-size car. It's the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Widest choice of power teams. 24 engine-transmission teams in all, with output up to 335 h.p.

A trunk that's made for long trips with up to 22.5% more actual luggage space. Still's lower for easier loading.

Fisher Body craftsmanship. Look at the finish, the fabrics, the detail work. You'll see the difference.
