Davis-Taylor Vows Are Said

MRS. EDWIN BINGHAM TAYLOR

Miss Peggy Joyce Davis and Edwin Bingham Taylor were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony Saturday night, June 3, at eight o'clock, with the Rev. Charles Rhinehart, pastor of the West Jefferson Methodist Church, and the Rev. Edwin Troutman, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Boone, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis of West Jefferson and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Taylor of Boone.

The vows were spoken before a background of candelabra, palms, tall baskets of white gladioli and mock orange, and arrangements of gladioli, snapdragons, and chrysanthemums in brass vases on pedestals.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. R. G. Pugh of West Jefferson, soloist, and Richard Luke of Jefferson, organist. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin-faded organza with French re-embroidered Alecon lace and seed pearls encircling the neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The floor-length bouffant skirt, which was fashioned with a bustle effect and trimmed at the waistline with satin roses, extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of pearls and a satin rose. She carried a cascade bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. Wayne Burgess of West Jefferson was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Thornhill of Boone and Miss Kaye Florence of Greensboro, college roommates of the bride, Mrs. Larry Davis of West Jefferson, sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Joan Hardin of Charlotte, and Misses Lynn Winkler of Boone and Brenda Lawrence of West Jefferson, cousins of the bride. They wore gowns of Nile green silk organza over taffeta styled with bell-shaped skirts with rose trim at the waist in the back. Their headaddresses were Nile organza petal bows with circular maline veils and they carried baskets of mixed summer flowers.

Charles G. Taylor of Boone, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Johnny and Tommy Taylor of Boone, brothers of the groom, Larry Davis of Raleigh and West Jefferson, brother of the bride, John W. Hodges III of Boone, James R. Reynolds of Boone and Raleigh, and Jack Armistead of Raleigh and Hampton, Va.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of rose beige lace over taffeta with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. The groom's mother wore a dress of ice blue lace and organza with matching accessories. She also had a white orchid corsage.

A reception was given by the bride's parents in the church Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony. Assisting in receiving and serving the guests were Mrs. Ed M. Anderson, Miss Stella Anderson, and Mrs. Elizabeth Barlow, all of West Jefferson, and Mrs. Joseph Winkler of Boone, and Mrs. Dent Pennington of Helton, sunts of the bride.

Following the reception the couple left on a brief wedding trip to western North Carolina. For traveling, the bride wore a cocoa brown two-piece dress with a matching beige embroidered jacket, bone accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Taylor is a 1957 graduate of Beaver Creek High School at West Jefferson and attended Catawba College at Salisbury for two years, where she was an active member of the Blue Masque. She graduated magna cum laude from Appalachian State Teachers College with a B. S. degree in English in May. She will be teaching English in the public schools in the fall.

Mr. Taylor graduated from Appalachian High School in 1957 and is now a senior at Appalachian State Teachers College.

The couple will reside at 114 Oak Street in Boone.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Miss Kathy Penn of New Brunswick, N. J., Miss Phyllis Holland of Statesville, Miss Lib Brinkley of Mount Airy, Misses Mary Ann Evans and Martha Wheeler of Winston-Salem, Miss Mitzi Zeger of Merersburg, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bingham of Kingsport, Tenn.

Picnic Given Dr. Mrs. Jones

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Jones were honored last Friday evening by the choir of the Boone Methodist Church at a picnic given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Linney. Present were twenty members of the choir of which the Joneses were members during their seven years of residence in Boone. After the meal Mrs. Linney presented Dr. and Mrs. Jones a silver tray, a gift from the choir in grateful appreciation for their years of service to the church music program.

Dr. and Mrs. Jones and family left Monday morning for a vacation before going to Ferrum, Virginia, where Dr. Jones will be director of the music department of Ferrum Junior College.
