Isaacs-Goodman Vows Exchanged

Miss Mary Helen Isaacs of Chapel Hill was married to Mr. Forrest Marion Goodman of Durham in a ceremony performed at 4:00 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, June 11, in the University Baptist Church at Chapel Hill.

The Rev. John E. Howell performed the double-ring ceremony, and Mrs. R. E. Sturdivant presented a program of wedding music.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles Raymond Cook of Winston-Salem, the bride wore a ball-length dress of pure silk organza over taffeta, with a fitted bodice, rounded neckline applied in lace, and bracelet-length sleeves. The full, gathered skirt was fashioned with a small puff in the center-back. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a jeweled tiara. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Bonnie Isaacs of Boone was her sister's maid of honor. Her gown was of pink organza over taffeta, and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Her headress consisted of a temple veil attached to a pink net bandeau.

Mr. Forrest Mason Goodman, father of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. Arnold Goodman and Julius Johnson, both of Durham, were ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple received the guests in the vestibule of the church.

For travel the bride wore a light blue silk linen ensemble with matching accessories, and an orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Thomas Evander Isaacs of Boone, and the late Mrs. Isaacs. She graduated from Bethel High School and received her nurse's training at Grace Hospital in Morganton. She is a member of the nursing staff of Memorial Hospital at Chapel Hill.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Forrest Mason Goodman of Goldsboro and the late Mrs. Goodman. He graduated from Durham High School and is presently employed by the American Tobacco Company at Durham.

After a wedding trip the couple will live in their new home, located on the old Chapel Hill-Durham highway.

Household Hints

By RUTH CURRENT

Washing Cottons—Cotton needs the least washing care of any of the fibers. The wash water for white cotton can be hotter than for other materials. In fact, with white preshrunk cottons, the hotter the water the better. Colored cottons should be washed separately.

Wet cotton is stronger than dry cotton, so spots and stains can be rubbed without hurting the fabric. But they should be rubbed with another section of the same garment, never with a cake of soap.

The first rinse should be about the same temperature as the washing water. And it's important to rinse until there's no trace of soap left in the rinse water—soap left in clothes can irritate a child's skin.

White cotton clothes should be hung in the sun to bleach, if possible. Colored clothes, on the other hand, should be hung in the shade, wrong side out, to help keep colors bright.

Ironing Cotton—Unless they are to have a shiny finish, cottons and linens should be ironed on the wrong side.

Washing Linen—Linen can be washed about the same way as cotton. Linen should never be bleached with strong chemical bleaches. If there's a stain, white linen garments should be hung in the sun.

Linen needs a hot iron for pressing. If the fabric is too damp the iron will scorch it.

Waterfalls Is Now Dry

Notice: One of our waterfalls is missing!

That bulletin might conceivably be issued by the state of North Carolina this summer, for one of Western North Carolina's scenic attractions, Toxaway Falls, is dry.

The missing water, however, is creating still another scenic attraction as it fills the basin of new Lake Toxaway to its 14-mile shoreline.

The white cascade that tumbles over granite outcroppings just after the river passes beneath U. S. Highway 64 in Transylvania County will be restored after the lake is filled, probably sometime in the midsummer.

Specific cancer antibodies are produced.

Friday Club Entertained

The Friday Club was entertained with a luncheon on Saturday, June 17, at the home of Mrs. A. E. South with Mrs. James Storie as associate hostess.

The South home was decorated with red roses in keeping with the theme of the party—the Red Rose Night Club. Table decorations, place cards, and gifts to the entertainers reflected the red rose motif.

During the luncheon hour, club music was furnished by Miss Sandra Deal at the piano, and between courses Judith Storie, dressed as the club "cigarette girl," served mints, nuts, candies, etc.

After the luncheon the chief club performance was that of Mrs. South who played rag-time music from the "Roaring Twenties."

Mrs. W. L. Winkler, a club member who is no longer a Boone resident, was one of the guests for this occasion. Other guests in addition to club members, were Mrs. Marvin Deal, Miss Sandra Deal, and Mrs. Remmel Porter.

Beech Creek Club

The Beech Creek Community Club met June 16 at George Harmon's store. The meeting was moved from the barn on account of the cool weather that we have been having here. The meeting was called to order by the president, R. L. Harmon. The Lord's Prayer was said by all.

Jack Guy demonstrated the name plates for mail boxes. George Harmon is going to make the mail box post. The group talked about getting telephones for our community. Paul Edmisten and Henry Oaks were appointed to decide on the boundary lines.

Mr. Cartner made a talk on the different things that we are doing in our community club. He introduced his assistant, Ted Richardson, from Randolph county. If weather permits the next meeting will be in the barn loft July 21. There were about 30 present for our meeting.
