Miss Wellborn, Mr. Ward Are Married

MRS. DEXTER BURTON WARD

The marriage of Miss Martha Jean Wellborn to Dexter Burton Ward was performed by Rev. Raymond Hendrix at 7:30 p. m., Saturday, June 24, at Stony Fork Baptist Church.

A program of music was presented by Mrs. Morris Casey, organist, and Mrs. Sheila Perry, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Wellborn of Deep Gap. She attended Appalachian High School and is now attending Mitchell's School of Beauty Culture at North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Ward is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ward of Sugar Grove. He attended Cove Creek High School and is now employed by Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of tiered net over taffeta, with a fitted long sleeved jacket of embroidered lace. Her fingertip veil was attached to a lace crown topped with pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with a purple orchid.

Mrs. Sherrill Wellborn, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street length dress of white organza with a lilac cummerbund, matching headress, shoes, and gloves. She carried a bouquet of white and lilac assorted flowers.

Mrs. Wendell Norris, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Drake Walsh, sister-in-law of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore similar dresses of lilac organza with matching headpieces, shoes, and gloves. They carried bouquets of white and lilac assorted flowers also.

Cannon Ward of Sugar Grove, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Sherrill Wellborn, brother of the bride, and Wendell Norris, both of Deep Gap. Cherrie Dunkley of Roxboro, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white dress with a lilac cummerbund similar to that of the matron of honor. Steven Ward, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

After a wedding trip, the couple will reside at Sugar Grove.

Rehearsal Dinner

Miss Martha Jean Wellborn and Dexter Burton Ward were entertained at a rehearsal dinner Friday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Wellborn of Deep Gap. Hostesses were Mrs. Vern Lee Greene, Miss Linda Greene, and Miss Hannah Greene.

Decorations followed pastel shades and assorted flower arrangements. A large tiered wedding cake was the center piece on the table, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Among the guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ward, parents of the groom, Mrs. Carroll Dunkley, Mrs. C. B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hendrix, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Greene, Mrs. Morris Casey, Mrs. Sheila Perry, and members of the wedding party.

Upon her return to Gastonia she will spend a week at Carolina Beach as guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Crawford, Jr. of Claremont.

Blowing Rock Garden Club

Mrs. Lee T. Dauridge and Mrs. Clarence Beutel entertained the Blowing Rock Garden Club in the Community Assembly Room Tuesday morning June 20th.

Four door prizes were given. These included assorted daffodil bulbs given by the president, imported hand made decorated candles from the Bonnie Brae Shop and in recognition of the first birthday of the garden club soap in the shape of birthday cake was given. At this time the president announced there were forty six members. Three new ones joined at this meeting.

The collect was read by Mrs. Holshouser followed by the business session. At this time Mrs. Bryce Beard, Jr. was elected secretary of the club. Plans were made for card parties to be held in July and August and Mrs. Phillip Fall was appointed chairman.

Mrs. Reineking made an announcement about reorganization of the hospital auxiliary, asked for hospital helpers in different functions of the grounds around the new nurses home. This was discussed and much interest was shown by the members who gladly accepted the appeal.

For the program Mrs. Beard discussed the flower arrangements in the assembly room. These were made in a variety of flowers, vines and containers, including a Japanese composition, which were judged and complimented by Mrs. Reineking. Twenty two members and guests enjoyed the informal and inspiring meeting and planned a picnic for the July club meeting when horticulture is to be the topic for discussion. This box lunch picnic will be held on the patio of Mrs. Snyder's lovely home on the Linville Road, Tuesday, July 18th.

Mrs. Freundlich has served on the faculties of the Oberlin Conservatory and the Juilliard Summer School. She is active in New York teaching privately and concertizing.

Mrs. Freundlich is here with her husband, who is conducting a piano workshop at the college.

Alpha Beta Tea Is Held

The Alpha Beta Chapter of the Alpha Delta Gamma Society held a tea Sunday afternoon from three to five at the home of Mrs. J. D. Shoemaker on Hillcrest Drive.

About twenty guests called during this time including several members of the Gamma Society of Lenoir, prospective members of Boone and Miss Inez Henderson of Charlotte who was instrumental in the organization of the society here.

The receiving line was composed of Mrs. Agnes Shipley, grand vice president, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Reka Shoemaker, newly elected president of the Boone chapter and Mrs. Bess Crawford, past president.

For the tea the dining room table was covered with a green satin cloth overlaid with pale pink organza. The gold A.D.G. emblem centered the table behind which was an eight branched candelabra holding tall white tapers entwined with ivy. The chapter colors were used in the purple asters and yellow gladioli arrangement.

On the mantel two branched candelabras held white candles. Centering these was a mass arrangement of Van Fleet roses.

Mrs. Muriel Glenn presided at a register in the den. The table holding the register was decorated in an all greenery arrangement.

Mrs. Agnes Shipley and Miss Jimmy Mast served punch. Assisting at the table were Mrs. Pansy Taylor and Mrs. Willie Sims.

Goodbys were said to Mrs. Raleigh Cottrell.
