

Thousands Of Acres Good Land In Watauga In Need Of Drainage

Thousands of acres of good farm land in the Watauga Soil Conservation District is in need of drainage, according to Edgar Greene, soil conservation aide for the district.

Most of this land has very little or no problem with soil erosion but cannot produce a good crop because of excess water. Many farmers are not harvesting maximum yields of crops because excess water in the fields has reduced yields far below the potential for the fields.

A good tile system properly installed and maintained will in many cases last more than 20 years. Care must be taken when installing the tile to insure a satisfactory long lasting job.

A good tile system properly installed. Some fields do not have a place for a good outlet. Some types of soil are so impervious it is not practical to attempt internal drainage. A system of surface drainage for this type of soil will in many cases help the field. This may include filling the low areas and grading the field so that all surface water will move toward an open ditch.

A survey of the field in most cases will be necessary to locate the drainage lines in the proper places. This survey will indicate the right depth and grade or slope to install the system. Billy Foutz, work unit conservationist, said that he and Mr. Greene are available to assist farmers in the district with their drainage problems, and will be glad to advise them on what might be the best method of drainage. Agricultural Conservation Program will make payment to farmers for an approved drainage system, Mr. Foutz pointed out. Some of the farmers in Watauga county who were listed by Mr. Greene who have installed good drainage systems that are functioning well are D. E. Church of Mabel; Dean Swift, Lower Cove Creek; Dean Wilson, Beaver Dam; Ray Clark, Shulls Mills; A. S. Cooper & Sons, Brownwood. There are scores of other farmers who have been successful in ridding their fields of excess water with some type of drainage system, according to Mr. Greene.

4,431 Citizens Are Given Free Chest X-Rays

Watauga county people should have a greater feeling of health security because the chest x-ray mobile unit has completed another successful visit in this county. While the mobile unit was serving here 4,431 citizens received advantage of the free chest x-ray service.

This x-ray service is provided to the people by the combined efforts of the State Health Department, Watauga Health Department, and the local TB Association.

"Every x-ray will be studied by qualified experts in their fields and a report will be mailed to each person x-rayed," according to Ruth T. Draughon, executive secretary of the local TB Association.

Many people contributed to the success of the chest x-ray survey. Mrs. Draughon said. These included the Watauga Democrat, chiefs of police in Boone and Blowing Rock; Mrs. Herman Eggers and her various church groups who served so efficiently as hostesses and assisted the clerks; clerks, officials of IRC, Shadowline, Prison Camp, Blue Ridge Electric Membership Corp.; and New River Light and Power Company.

Mrs. Draughon said, "The Health Department and TB Association express thanks and appreciation to all of those for their cooperation in making Watauga county a healthier and safer place to work and play.

N. C. Farm Income Is Increasing

Cash receipts from farm marketings in North Carolina for the first five months of 1961 were 10 per cent higher than the same period in 1960.

"This year's figure is estimated at $193,794,000, compared to $175,181,000 for the first five months of 1960," says Dr. Charles Pugh, specialist in agricultural policy for the State College Agricultural Extension Service.

Pugh believes that the combination of the Feed Grain Program and higher support prices on several commodities this year should boost farm income further in the latter half of the year.

Amendments To Wage; Hour Law Are Cited

Raleigh—Tar Heel employers are reminded that amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act, generally known as the Federal Wage-Hour Law, become effective on Sunday, September 3, 1961.

The reminder came from State Labor Commissioner Frank Crane, who administers the Federal Wage-Hour Law in North Carolina under a 22-year-old cooperative agreement between the N. C. Department of Labor and the U. S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division. North Carolina is the only state having such an agreement for local enforcement of the Federal law.

Commissioner Crane said that employees who are covered by provisions of the Wage-Hour Law will be entitled to a minimum of at least $1.15 an hour starting Sept. 3rd. The law continues to apply to employees engaged in interstate commerce or the production of goods for interstate commerce, unless specifically exempt.

Coverage of the Act also has been extended to employees of large enterprises engaged in commerce or the production of goods for commerce, Crane said. These newly covered employees, mostly in the retail and service trades, will be due a minimum of at least $1.00 an hour, starting Sept. 3rd. Also, newly covered employees of some gasoline service stations, local and interurban transit systems, and construction enterprises.

Crane said the Act's overtime provisions will continue to apply to workers who are already covered. They require time and one half pay for all hours worked over 40 in a workweek. For employees who are newly covered under the Act, he said, overtime pay will not be required until 1963.

Exemptions continue to apply to such establishments as hotels, motels, restaurants, hospitals, movies, and a few other service establishments. Crane added that the retail or service establishments exemption now in effect will continue to apply to establishments which are not in a $1,000,000 enterprise, or if in such an enterprise, have less than $250,000 in annual gross sales.

Blue Ridge Membership Corp. Issues Report; Meeting Sept. 9

The 1960 annual report of Blue Ridge Electric Membership Corporation was mailed last week to the 18,700 consumer-members of the corporation according to C. E. Viverette, General Manager.

Included with the mailing was the official notice of the twenty-fifth annual membership meeting which will be held this year at the Hudson High School on Saturday, September 9.

Viverette stated that operating revenues for 1960 amounted to $1,995,934, up $46,565 over 1959 even though a 10% rate reduction was effected January 1, 1960. This saved the members approximately $200,000 in 1960. Assets of the corporation increased nearly half million dollars during 1960 to $11,919,154. The members' equity-ownership increased $130,000 for the year and amounted to $1,533,975 at the close of 1960. "This was very gratifying," said Viverette, "considering the substantial rate reduction."

Corporation has a unique rate structure in that all users with power requirements of 50 KW or 63 horse power and less are on the same rate whether houses, farms, stores, or other types of users. As a result the commercial users have one of the lowest rates in the state by a substantial amount. The house rate is also below those in the area for users above 500 kw per month.

Viverette stated power sales were up 11% over 1959 with the large industrial accounts using 45 million of the 110 million KWH sold. Industrial development has continued at a steady pace for the past several years in the cooperative's service area, according to Viverette.

Blue Ridge Electric Membership Corporation operates 3,600 miles of line in Caldwell, Alexander, Avery, Watauga, Ashe, Alleghany, Surry, and Wilkes Counties. A. B. Hurt of Jefferson is President of the Corporation; W. B. Austin of Jefferson, vice president; and D. R. Moore of Granite Falls, secretary-treasurer.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture reported this in its annual revision of the publication "Changes in Farm Production and Efficiency."

One farm worker provided food, fiber and smoking for more than 26 persons (including himself) at home and abroad last year—two more than he was able to supply in 1959 and a dozen more than in 1946.
