Miss Houff Marries Mr. Black

MRS. ROBERT COFFEY BLACK

Stanton, Va.—The marriage of Miss Connie Lee Houff to Mr. Robert Coffey Black took place Saturday, August 19, in the Second Presbyterian Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed at eight o'clock in the evening by the Rev. R. L. St. Clair before an altar setting of palms, cathedral candelabra with candles, and arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Hampton Houff, 625 Parkview Ave., Staunton, and the late Mr. Houff. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Black, 337 Vine Street.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. James B. Nulty, wore an original gown of white nylon and imported tudor rose lace, designed with a fitted bodice, semibateau neckline, and full skirt. Her nylon veil was secured to a crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses with streamers and love knots.

Bridesmaids were Miss Kay Dixon, Miss Joyce Harlowe, Miss Carolyn Collins, and Miss Gloria Baylor, all of Staunton. Junior bridesmaid was Linda Houff, Alexandria, cousin of the bride.

The bridesmaids' gowns were identical to that of the honor attendant except they were lilac. They carried lavender pom poms with matching net and ribbons. The junior bridesmaid's dress was pink nylon net and was ballerina length with a half hat to match. She also carried a bouquet of cascading pink pom poms with matching net and ribbon.

Flower girls were Anita Kay Clemmer and Dana Sensabaugh. They wore street length white organza dresses and carried baskets of pink rose petals.

Ringbearers were Cathy Troxell, cousin of the bride, and Carey Doss, both of Staunton.

Mr. Edward Trott was best man. Ushers were Messrs. Robert Moyer, Richard Wilson, Kendall Bennett, and David Ludwig, all of Staunton.

The bridegroom's mother wore a mauve sheath of embroidered silk organza with matching accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidiums.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given in the church social hall by the bride's mother. Hostess was Mrs. Rawley Collins.

Upon leaving for a southern wedding trip, the bride wore a black and blue check cotton two-piece ensemble with black accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.
