GALA BALL STARTS FESTIVITIES

College Homecoming May Be Largest Ever Known

Annual Grid Game Will Be Lenoir Event

One of the largest alumni turnouts in the history of the college is expected to attend the big twoday homecoming festivities at Appalachian State Teachers College, October 20-21.

The round of activities gets underway Friday night with a gay homecoming dance in the new physical educational building at 8 p. m. This dance is being sponsored by Chi Lambda Chi, with President David Smith of Cherryville in charge of the arrangements. Music will be furnished by the college dance band, "The Appatones," under the direction of Dr. William G. Spencer, head of the ASTC music department.

Alumni registration begins at 8 p. m. Saturday morning at the Boone Elementary School, with Mrs. Daisy Eggers of the English Department in charge. The Vernician Club is sponsoring the registration and will have tickets available at the registration desk for all the alumni events.

Musical notes will break the clear mountain air at 11 a. m., Saturday, as the fast-stepping Appa-lachian College band and two other bands start the big parade through Boone. About 50 floats floats, and dignitaries will follow a route through the campus in the "Appalachian: Quality-Plus"

Other events of the day will include a luncheon in the Boone Elementary School cafeteria for all the alumni and their friends, with Mrs. Daisy Eggers serving as hostess and Mrs. Wiley Smith as

Saturation Program Enforcement Mapped

Corporal C. M. Jones of the State Highway Patrol, says that a saturation program of en-forcement is being started on the highways of this area, in order that the usual upturn of accidents at this season of the year may be checked.

Corporal Jones says that radar and speed watches will be set up, that light checks will be tituted and that those with faulty lights will be required to have them fixed. If the con-cition is bad, tickets will be

Mr. Jones myn that the end of the year brings the largest accident and fatality rate on the highways. During the time when the greatest period of darkness prevails, accidents pick up, and the patrol is determined to better this condition.

To illustrate the trend in accidents toward the end of the year. Corporal Jones gives the following table, showing the accidents throughout 1960:
