Hands Off

President Kennedy has announced that he plans to keep out of any contest over the choice of a Speaker of the House if Representative Sam Rayburn is unable to resume his position.

The President said that the House had a Speaker and the House will elect its next Speaker and it would be unwise for anyone to indicate a preference.

SNEAK SNOW—Nobody expected this kind of weather last week. These cars bear evidence of the snow which fell on Boone Thursday night. Although it did not stick on the streets visitors to the area Sunday could see spots of snow on the hillsides as they enjoyed the fall color of the trees. Precipitation for Thursday and Thursday night was reported to be 1.19 inch. The snow was preceded by sleet, hail, and rain, and snow flurries continued through most of Friday despite some sunshine.

Beliefs Of Catholics To Be Explained

An invitation is extended to all those interested in becoming better acquainted with the Roman Catholic Church to attend a series of lectures, discussions and movies, which began Sunday night, October 22nd, at seven o'clock.

The program is being held in the Newman Center at the church on Faculty Street.

Father Ralph Monk, priest in charge at the church extended the invitation and assures a cordial welcome to this program and also to services on Sunday morning at nine o'clock.

A schedule of the Sunday evening programs for the next few weeks is as follows:
Nov. 5th—God, the Creator
The Nature of Man
Supernatural Destiny of Man
Original Sin of Adam and Eve
2nd in Series: The Birth of Christ.
Nov. 12th—Redemption: Preparation for the Redeemer
Jesus-Christ, the God-Man.
3rd in Series: The Presentation of Christ for Purification, according to the Jewish law.
Nov. 19th—The Church of Christ
