PROOF ENOUGH London — Thomas Watson trailed his wife to a gentleman's apartment then returned to his truck to get his camera and ladder. Watson placed the ladder against the building and mounted to the window where he took a picture of his wife and the gentleman friend. The amateur cameraman made the mistake of not taking the cap off the lens and came up with no photo. The judge accepted Watson's version and granted him a divorce. 2-21-3p

Notes And Comments It's always easy to find an excuse for delaying hard work. Being tired too often causes people to be often broke. One great need of this country is for some new jokes. What the nation needs is more "lemme" and less "gimme."

Even a rich nation like the U.S.A. has a limit to the amount it can spend. Individuals need balance for successful living—essentially at the bank. Recent cold weather has checked the talk about our winters getting warmer. Expressing faith in your own religion does not insult those who disagree with you. People who keep large sums of money in safety deposit boxes have their reasons.

The critic who expects all of creation to fit his views just happened to be born too late. Public speakers rarely state the facts with such accuracy that they can be relied upon. Maybe, if the farmers organized a tight, little union they could get higher prices for foodstuff. The person who controls his temper on the golf course, at all times, rates a medal and cluster.

Most schemes for making money revolve themselves into the intelligent application of perspiration. The big economic question for the U.S.A. is not whether there will be inflation but whether there will be deflation and an economic collapse. Organization is a device to enable the weak-minded to get somewhere or something. Chinese Communists, even when talking peace, have to exhibit their nasty manners.

One of the ways to become intelligent is to remember not to believe everything you see in print. Life is a question of checks and balances—to be exact, bank balances. Using discrimination in the reading of news makes for an informed person. One who depends on the truth can do without an extraordinary memory. An enemy who becomes a friend is usually a real friend. The courts lose their reputation when litigants seek to avoid justice. Ninety per cent of the people who say they talk too much are accurate. Acting more ignorant than you actually are usually has its advantages. Long-winded answers are generally a cover for lack of specific information. There are few unaffected by flattery and we are not among them, thankfully. Correct this sentence: "I appreciate the gift so much—it was just what we wanted." Now that we've had a taste of it, winter doesn't seem all we thought it was—last summer.

If you want 1963 to be your anyone who reads the Watauga Democrat for a full year will be better informed at the end of that period than before. biggest year, try a systematic advertising program in the Watauga Democrat. Planned advertising always pays off, and it's available to all, at a fair and fixed price, in this country.

Brief News Notes

English educational researcher says painstaking corrections of English themes by high school students does more harm than good. Under Secretary of State has called for an end to Congressional attacks on the Kennedy Administration's Cuba policy. Navy says no ships can slip into Cuba undetected. High prices for citrus fruits will continue at almost double the pre-freeze cost. Kennedy seeks to enlarge key Senate unit to speed tax program. FTC barred phony calorie claim by "Hollywood Bread" makers. Billy Graham, evangelist, sees Russian religious revival soon. Overweight airman must lose 32 excess pounds or face discharge as unfit for service. British begin drive for supporters on combined industrial and diplomatic campaign to strengthen future dealings with Common Market. Soviet Government ordered NBC to close its Moscow Bureau because of program about Khrushchev. Canada must honor pledges to its NATO allies and accept nuclear warheads, says Liberal Party Leader.

For COLDS take 666 FAT OVERWEIGHT Available to you without a doctor's prescription, our drug called ODRINEX. You must lose ugly fat in 7 days or your money back. No strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking of so-called reducing candies, crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you will enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Your weight must come down, because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. ODRINEX costs $3.00 and is sold on this GUARANTEE: If not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. ODRINEX is sold with this guarantee by: Boone Drug Store, Boone. Mail orders filled. 2-14-3p
