

Local Democratic Officials Invited To Raleigh Meeting

Raleigh. — Watauga County Democratic Party Chairman C. H. Hendrix and vice-chairman Mrs. Harry M. Hamilton have been invited to represent their organization at a Democratic Party Conference in Raleigh on March 29 and 30, it was announced this week by State Party Chairman Bert Bennett. All county chairmen and vice-chairmen have been asked to take part in three sessions of briefings, Bennett said, designed to furnish them more information concerning state government, the issues of the 1963 General Assembly and state party matters. The conference will begin on Friday, March 29, in the Hall of the House at the Capitol where each delegate will register and receive a kit of supplemental information to assist with the briefings. Party affairs and activities will feature the morning session and close with a discussion of several phases of state government by state officials and department heads. The delegates are being invited to a luncheon at the Mansion by Governor and Mrs. Terry Sanford. On Saturday morning the sessions will be moved to the new State Legislative Building where they will convene after a guided tour of the new building. Legislative matters will be directed by Senate President Clarence Stone and Speaker of the House Clifton Blue. The chairmen and vice-chairmen are expected to attend a reception at the Hotel Sir Walter on the afternoon of March 30 as part of the Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner activities, when Vice-President Lyndon Johnson will be the guest of honor. "We hope that all of the chairmen and vice-chairmen will plan to attend these important sessions," Bennett said. "In order to properly prepare for the 1964 General Election, it will be necessary for us to be fully acquainted with procedures, new methods and the issues."

Walters To Participate In Volleyball Assn. Meeting

Marshall L. Walters, chairman of the department of health, physical education and recreation at Appalachian State Teachers College, will take part in the annual meeting of the U. S. Volleyball Association in San Antonio, Texas, the week of March 5. He will also cover the National Volleyball Tournament. Professor Walters is editor of the USVBA annual Guide and Rule Book, a member of the executive committee of the USVBA, a member of the National Volleyball Rules Committee, a member of the committee on officials and certification, a member of the committee on all-American team personnel, a member of the committee for selection of personnel for international competition, and a national rated official. During the meeting he will aid in the selection of members of the men's and women's team to represent the U. S. A. in the Pan-American Games at San Paulo, Brazil, April 20 to May 5. Expenses in USVBA activities are paid by the organization and not by the college.

FTC Bars Bread Advertising Claim

The Federal Trade Commission ordered National Bankers Services of Chicago to stop advertising that its "Hollywood Bread" contains fewer calories than other breads. The reason for fewer calories per slice was that the slice was smaller than standard white bread. The FTC order, which is not final, forbids the company from claiming that consumers will lose weight by substituting Hollywood bread for other commercial breads in their normal diet.

"Othello" To Be Presented At ASTC

Appalachian State Teachers College will bring the internationally renowned University Players here to present Shakespeare's "Othello," which will be staged on March 14 in the Administration Building Auditorium. Rogers Witener, chairman of the artists and lecture series at ASTC, said that a matinee performance will be given at 2 o'clock, and the evening performance at 8. Described by critics as Shakespeare's "perfect play," the theme of "Othello" is summed up in the drama's words, "O beware, my lord, of jealousy: It is the green-eyed monster. . . ." From the past performances of the University Players this tragic production promises a rich experience to the spectators. "Othello" has been mounted in spectacular style with a handsome set and stunning costumes to match the theatricality of the writing. Outstanding visual beauty has long been a trademark of all the University Players' productions of the great classics, Mr. Witener said. The troupe will be playing here as part of an eight-month tour of 36 states—an itinerary that keeps the company on the move from late September until May. With 13 tours behind them and eight overseas trips, Players are seasoned veterans of traveling repertory. "Othello" is one of Shakespeare's greatest works. A towering triumph in the telling of a simple story with stirring force. First performed in 1604, it has remained a living drama over the centuries and is as popular today as it was in the playwright's lifetime.

Alexander Accepts Position With Senate Committee

Washington.—Senator B. Everett Jordan announced Monday the appointment of ex-Rep. Hugh Q. Alexander of Kannapolis as chief counsel of his Senate Rules and Administration Committee. Alexander, who began work immediately, said, "I am glad to have the opportunity to remain associated with the legislative branch of our government." He added, "I feel that in taking this position I will be able to utilize my experience in the Congress and at the same time continue to be of service to the people of North Carolina." Alexander was defeated in his bid for a sixth term as Ninth District representative last November by Republican James T. Broyhill of Lenoir. Broyhill's margin of victory in the 11-county district was 1,033. Alexander's decision to stay in Washington erases him as a Democratic contender for the Ninth District seat in 1964, according to some observers in Washington. Gordon F. Harrison, a veteran member of the staff, has held the post of chief clerk and counsel. He will continue as chief clerk.
