

Home Demonstration Council Meets

The second quarterly Home Demonstration Council meeting was held on Friday in the Home Economics Extension Agents office. Mrs. Earl Petrey, county council president, presided.

Mrs. Coy Billings of Cove Creek Club was elected secretary to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. George Harmon of Sugar Grove.

Other items of business discussed was the new home demonstration yearbook, leading school to be held on April 2 in the Home Economics Extension Agent's office, bloodmobile visit on April 23, county scrapbook material should be in by May 10, District V Home Demonstration Council meeting will be held in Spruce Pine on April 18, the county achievement committee will have a report by May 10 and the 25c per club member for the Citizenship Conference is due to Mrs. Cecil Swift by June 1.

Beaver Dam, Bethel, Brushy Fork, Cove Creek, Hodges Gap and Town and Country Home Demonstration Clubs have paid $1.00 for the Music Fund this year. This is three more than last year.

The Home Demonstration Clubs are having a music workshop at the Boone Methodist Church on March 28.

Bethel, Blowing Rock, Brushy Fork, Cove Creek, Green Valley, Hodges Gap and Town and Country Clubs were represented at the council meeting with an attendance of 13.

Brushy Fork Club Meets

The Brushy Fork Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Eddie Norris on Thursday, March 21.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Eddie Norris. The hundredth Psalm was read by Mrs. Reatha Wilson for devotion, and Mrs. Ivalee Dancey led the prayer.

The craft leader, Miss Maude Perry, showed some Swedish weaving she had done. Also, Mrs. Reatha Wilson brought an Easter display to show.

Home management leader, Mrs. Martha Greene, gave some suggestions on "Arranging Your Kitchen."

The safety leader, Mrs. Ruby Adams, gave a safety report.

The foods leader, Mrs. Louise Baird, gave some helpful hints plant jobs. Adams is cashier of Northwestern Bank.

Stanley Harris, secretary-treasurer of Watauga Citizens, Inc., reports that the campaign to raise $25,000 to assure the shoe factory's coming to this county has made "excellent" progress.

"Already $21,250—or a little less than 90 per cent of the goal—has been reported and quite a number of donations are still pending. A special effort is being made to complete the fund drive by Thursday noon (time of the business luncheon)."

Added Harris, "Every citizen interested in the progress of Watauga county should do his part with a subscription, payable by or before July 1, 1963.

TEST BAN HOPES

President Kennedy says that the United States will continue negotiations with Soviet Russia in an effort to obtain a safeguard test ban treaty. The only alternative is to see nuclear weapons spread to other countries.

Blowing Rock Home Club Meets

The Blowing Rock Home Demonstration Club met in the lovely home of Mrs. Howard Holshouser on March 21, with Mrs. Clyde Dula presiding.

The club collect was presented by Mrs. Dowd Robinson. Mrs. Holshouser gave the treasurer's report. The members voted that the club donate $1.00 towards the support of the State Music Fund.

Mrs. R. B. Hardin, Mrs. Clyde Dula, Mrs. Howard Holshouser, Mrs. Dowd Robinson, Mrs. Steward Bolick, and Mrs. W. M. Shaheen volunteered to bake cookies for the personnel of the blood mobile, due in Boone April 23.

Dates worth remembering were brought to the attention of the members. The Music Workshop on March 28, the district V council meeting which will be held in Spruce Pine on April 18, and the county council meeting on May 10, at the Boone Methodist Church with guest speaker Guy Angell.

Mrs. Robinson volunteered to be the club leader for the April meeting of which the lesson will be on window hardware.

Conflicting dates of the district V council meeting and the club's regular monthly meeting, the April meeting will be held on Thursday, April 4, in the

Green Valley Club Meets

The Green Valley Home Demonstration Club met March 20, with Mrs. Conley Church. The meeting was opened by reading the collection and the devotional was led by Mrs. Church. The group sang "Oh For Carolina," after which the club was in regular session.

The roll was called and eight members reported present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President—Mrs. Clayton Moretz, treasurer—Mrs. Minnie Norris, vice-president—Mrs. Russell Norris, secretary—Mrs. Troy Norris, assistant secretary—Mrs. Woodrow Winebarger.

Mrs. Lillian Danner gave a very interesting demonstration on gardening. Location, preparation of ground, fertilizers, seeds, plants, dusts and weed control.

Everyone enjoyed the delicious refreshments served by Mrs. Church. The club adjourned and will meet in April with Billy Byers.

Whether you're seeding in a family project garden, or planting big acreage money crops, you'll want your efforts to pay off in the best yields possible.
