On Dean's List At King College

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hagaman, boy.
Mr. and Mrs. William Downs, boy.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vines, boy.
California woman endures 32-hour ordeal in waterfilled pit.

In recognition of their top grades, two graduates of Appalachian High School were included on the Dean's list for the winter quarter at King's College, Charlotte.

Miss Mary Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hayes, 509 West King Street, Boone, with her grades of "A" and "B" in the junior accounting course made the Dean's list for the second consecutive quarter. Miss Elizabeth Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Greer, 412 A Howard Street, Boone, was graduated from high school in 1961 and attended Appalachian State Teachers College for a year before entering King's College in January for the general business secretarial course. She made the Dean's list during her first quarter at King's College.

Men and women, who learn to laugh at themselves, even privately, are on the road to self-improvement.

CONSUMER SPENDING UP
Consumer spending will reach an annual rate of about $368,000,000,000 in the first quarter according to a Commerce Department report.
For the last two years, consumer spending has been on the upswing.
