The bride's table was covered with a white cut-work table cloth over pink satin. A milk glass bowl held an arrangement of white dogwood flanked by white lighted tapers in milk glass holders. A three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom completed the decorations.

Cake, punch, mints and nuts were served.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. George Triplett, Mrs. Bob Wilcox, Miss Linda George Triplett, Miss Judy Triplett and Miss Kathy Dotson.

JEAN'S PERSONAL COLUMN Dear Jane And Rachel:

By JEAN L. RIVERS

Most of last week was spent at the office (Democrat) training Mrs. Roberta Hargrave to take Margaret York's place as secretary in our business. As you both know Margaret and John are expecting their first child early in July and she has gone to live with her parents in Morganton until John finishes the spring term at Appalachian College. They are a mighty nice young couple and I hope all their wishes come true. Mrs. Hargrave is doing real well and we are glad to have her.

Mrs. Bob Ray brought us a loaf of delicious whole wheat bread Wednesday . . . because we let the Jr. Woman's Club, which she is active in, have a rummage sale in the building adjoining the Democrat. The sale was for the benefit of Watauga Hospital and they were more than welcome. However, we are mighty glad she is such a good cook and thoughtful person.

While we are on the subject of food . . . On Thursday Mr. Dwight Edmisten brought us some blue fish, which he caught in Florida recently. We plan to have a good time eating them tonight and we appreciate Mr. Edmisten's generosity.

Mrs. A. L. Cooke and her daughter Vivian (Mrs. Paul Fox of Hickory) came by for a visit Thursday morning. This is the first time I had seen Vivian since we took that "famous" bridge train to New York last October. Just as we arrived there we learned of the acuteness of the Cuban situation . . . and after careful deliberation . . . decided to hop a jet and come home. Paul met us at the airport in Charlotte and I spent the night in their lovely home in Hickory before coming on to Boone. We'll make it a point to go for a visit with them soon. I want you to see their house, which they planned. They can have as many as 28 guests overnight! Can you imagine that . . . and "The Foxes Den" on the ground floor is a real cute place. Their sons, Paul, Jr. and Frank, are students at the University of Georgia, and you could see their footprints all over the place. In fact, Vivian told me that their home is the meeting place for ever so many of the young people and that is mighty fine. I enjoyed the visit and hope they will come often.

Laura Ruth and Joe Williams sold their Laurel Motel last week to Gordon and Iva Dean Winkler. The Winkler's daughter, Anna Boyce and husband Randy Phillips will probably be in charge of the motel . . . Luck to them!

Daisy and Graydon Eggers moved into their new house on Tracy Circle Friday. Dr. Graydon came in to give us his new address and he said he liked to sleep over there mighty well. They had lived on Faculty Street many years and I imagine it is a lot quieter in the new home. I'm glad they have it!

Jennie and Jack Groce's young son Doug, who recently underwent eye surgery, called me for a chat last Monday night. He said he thought Easter Sunday would be a good day for me to come to visit him. I couldn't go and I'm sorry. I know I missed a lot . . . He is so cute and so is his sister Amy.

I visited Sunday afternoon with my daddy and Aunt Hatt and was so glad to run into some of your uncles and aunts, Wiley and Mayme Lewis of Bristol and Howard and Blanche Range of Elizabethton. I had not seen them for ages and we had a lot of fun. Blanche had her camera in hand and all had to pose so her daughter Sylvia (Mrs. Bill Farley of San Diego, California) could have snapshots of some of the relatives. She also showed us pictures of Sylvia's two sons and both are adorable. Blanche has not seen either of them, but if her plans work out she will be going to California in June. Also saw one of our cousins, Louise Johnson Hagaman of Norfolk, Virginia, while over home Sunday. She is looking well and I enjoyed the very short visit we had with her.

Wheeler and Mary Farthing of Greensboro dropped by Saturday morning and it was mighty good to see Wheeler again . . . and to meet his wife. Wheeler worked on The Appalachian in 1937-38 and part of 39 and is now with the Greensboro Record. We enjoyed seeing them and hope to get to know Mary better in the near future.

Will tell you about my tour of Blowing Rock next week. Just don't have the time or space this week.

Love,
Mom

Rhododendron Garden Club

Mrs. Sarah Horton was hostess to the Rhododendron Garden Club at her home in Vilas for the April meeting. As members arrived, they enjoyed browsing in her newly remodeled and redecorated home. They were especially interested in several pieces of old furniture with family background.

Mrs. Grace Mast presided during the business meeting. Mrs. Velma Cottrell gave the devotional, using the club collect as the closing prayer.

The Garden Tour for August 8 was announced. This club will participate.

The group will cooperate with the Worthwhile Woman's Club in helping with window decorations for the Tercentenary celebration in June.

Joe Maples, golf pro of the Boone Golf Course, gave a most interesting program on lawns and lawn care. He talked about the cause of poor turf, giving the two main causes as insects and lack of proper nutrients. He then showed the group how to correct these conditions. He spoke concisely, and the group was able to take notes with exact instructions for carrying out an effective program of lawn care.

The hostess served a dessert plate during the social hour.

Fashion News

There was never a season that women who sew could have it easier than this summer. What with shifts, over blouses and sleeveless dresses, the seamstress never had it so good.

Full skirts, long ones for dining at home seem to be in favor. They can be made of cottons or silks but many of them are in gayly printed fabrics and worn with solid colored bodices. Others are of the same materials, top and bottom.

If one has a beige or bone colored coat, bright colored dresses are smart — and vice versa, gay coats with black, blue or pale frocks.

Blowing Rock Community Club Entertained By Mrs. Elie Mattar

The April meeting of the Blowing Rock Community Club was held at the home of Mrs. Elie Mattar, Mayview Park, Blowing Rock April 9.

The meeting was opened by the club's president, Mrs. Wm. Shaheen. The devotional was said by Mrs. Ward Courtney. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Raymond Weger, and Miss Margaret Vance, club treasurer, read her report.

The various committees reported. The Relief committee reported that it has a surplus of clothing. Mrs. Lloyd Robbins, chairman of the committee, was absent, and Mrs. Shaheen presented the report, and suggested to the club that it would be a good idea to run a rummage sale to dispose of the excess clothing. This sale will be conducted as a regular rummage sale, not to be restricted to clothing.

This project was put to a motion and passed.

The club is asking all persons who have any old clothing, books, bric a brac, pots, pans, china, just about anything not needed by the donor (especially after spring cleaning) to let the club have it. A committee will be appointed to separate and price the article. Anyone having donations for this sale may leave such at Walker's Drug Store and The Village Shop.

The date and place of the sale will be announced.

The meeting was then adjourned.
