Miss Sherwood Weds Mr. Osborne

MRS. HERBERT NELSON OSBORNE, JR.

Miss Linda Lee Sherwood became the bride of Mr. Herbert Nelson Osborne, Jr., Saturday, April 13, at 2:30 p. m., at the Cove Creek Baptist Church, Sherwood, N. C. Officiating was the pastor, the Rev. Ernest Blankenship.

Miss Barbara Erwin, organist, of Greenville, S. C., and Mr. Bill Janius, soloist and minister of music at Pentle Street Baptist Church in Greenville, presented the wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Gordon Sherwood of Sugar Grove. She is a graduate of Cove Creek High School, Lees-McRae College and Carson-Newman College and is now teaching in the Archibald D. Murphy Elementary School in Greensboro.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne of Greenville, S. C., is a graduate of Greenville High School, attended Mars Hill College and served in the U. S. Air Force. He is associated with Fuller Brush Co. in Greensboro.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with long sleeves, basque waist and the scooped neckline was embroidered with crystal beads, sequins and pearls. The full gathered skirt ended in a chapel train. Her veil of imported illusion was attached to a triple crown of tulle petals centered with seed pearls, and she carried a white Bible topped with a yellow throated orchid.

Mrs. Henry Carter of Winston-Salem was matron of honor. She wore a dress of iridescent yellow and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Mr. Nelson, Sr., was best man and ushers were Joseph Sherwood and Henry Carter.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sherwood wore a dress of ice blue silk linen with matching accessories, and the bridegroom's mother chose a dress of pink wool with matching accessories. Both wore a corsage of baby orchids.

The bride and groom received guests in the foyer of the church after the ceremony, and the couple are now residing at 1311 Spring Garden Street in Greensboro following a short wedding trip through the mountains of North Carolina.

A cake cutting was given by the ladies of Cove Creek Baptist Church in the reception room Friday night. Attending were members of the wedding party and the immediate family.

Junior Woman's Club Meeting

The Boone Junior Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Toni Chipman, Woodland Drive, for the April meeting. Mrs. Jan Schaefer was the co-hostess.

The meeting was opened with the members repeating the club collect. The president, Mrs. Dot Barker, welcomed the guests: Mrs. Irene Stout, Mrs. W. A. Young, Mrs. Long, Miss Ann Tinsley and Mrs. Lillian Danner.

Mrs. Wanda Sawyer read a poem, "Easter Needs," for the devotional thought.

Mrs. Becky Fox, the program chairman, introduced Mrs. Lillian Danner, home demonstration agent, who gave a program on civil defense.

Mrs. W. A. Young, district president, made a few remarks to the members asking, "What kind of club-woman are you?" She gave a comedy skit, "Two Clubwomen," which was enjoyed by all.

During the business session committee reports were given. Mrs. Ruth Ray reported 80 articles of clothing distributed from the clothing closet during April.

The members brought Easter candies and presents to be sent to Murdock.

The president announced that date of the Women's Club Convention to be held in Asheville April 30, May 1 and 2, with a special Jr. Women's Day Wednesday, May 1. Several members plan to attend.
