JEAN'S PERSONAL COLUMN Dear Jane And Rachel

By JEAN L. RIVERS

A week ago Thursday, Gary Dalton . . . senior at the University of North Carolina, came for a visit with us and on Friday morning I took him on a tour of Blowing Rock. Present plans call for his working full time on the Democrat's Blowing Rock section this summer.

Our first stop was at Chamber of Commerce for a chat with the secretary, Betty Custer, and Mrs. Nettie Greene. Betty was wondering where in the world we will put all the tourists this summer . . . week end in particular. Chatted briefly with Howard Holshouser, Lloyd Robbins, Betty and Hayden Pitts and with Mrs. Broyhill out at the Rock Gift Shop, where we found some delicious home made mints. We came back by Blowing Rock Hospital to see the administrator, Mr. Wegar, who showed us the new wing of the hospital. I was delighted to see they have provided a sofa in most of the new rooms so a member of the family can stay overnight. And, this is offered at no extra cost. This is something I feel strongly about and I am glad they are providing this service. Getting back to the quick tour . . . other people we tried to see were the Mayor and Mrs. Bob Hardin, Irene Coffey, Howard Barnwell, Harry and Grover Robbins, Ellen Coffey, Mr. Eli Mataar and others. Went by the golf course, Blowing Rock Country Club and Tweetsie, where workmen were getting ready for the season. In a flash everything will be in high gear over there . . . and I am real excited about it. This will be our biggest season of all time!

Stanley and Mary Harris have started building an apartment house on Queen Street and we are mighty happy they have come to our end of town. The Sturdivants of North Wilkesboro are their partners in this venture. Estel Wagner and Cecil Miller have their apartment house, between the Catholic Church and Blowing Rock road, well under way. Also hear another one will be built on Oak or Pine Street in the near future . . . can't tell you much about this one yet. Carl and Marbeth Fidler are building a tourist court almost adjoining their home, and the Dwight Edmists are enlarging theirs. Looks as if we will have plenty of room here this summer.

I went to the desert-bridge at Margaret Council's Thursday afternoon. Dolly Matheson was co-hostess and they had a real pretty party. They had made tallies in the shape of little hats in pastel shades of taffeta and small white dollies. My description doesn't do them justice, so I'll keep mine and show it to you when you come home. I saw ever so many people at the party that I hadn't seen for ages and enjoyed every minute of it. Ellen Payne got high score, Margaret Coffey second high and Rena Godwin bing.

Your daddy and I had to go to Charlotte on business Friday and it was a beautiful drive. The azaleas, dogwood, japonica, iris, tulips, pansies and many other early spring flowers and shrubs were in full bloom. Trees are half way to their peak and I loved every minute of it. Beautiful is the word for this time of year!

I fully expect to see unusual window decorations in the large department stores during Christmas and other holidays, but was delightfully surprised to see one of Belk's windows full of white bunny rabbits having a lawn party. I'm sure this was intended mainly for children, but I had a ball and more chuckles than I have had in many weeks. The mama rabbit (mechanically) was feeding her baby with a spoon, one big fat bunny was fast asleep (his tummy breathing life-like) on a low lounge, a family of four were eating at a picnic table and two were doing the twist to appropriate music. Wish I could have stayed longer.

Retha Wilson told me Saturday that her husband is ill with a virus. I'm real sorry and hope he is well soon. Had hoped that this sort of thing was over for this season.

Saw Horton and Eileen Gragg a few minutes Saturday afternoon. Eileen and their sons, Horton, Jr. and Nicky, are now living in the Gragg home here and Horton, who will retire from the Air Force in November, comes up from Fort Bragg every week end. It was good to see them and we are glad they have decided to live in Boone. Horton is looking so much like his late daddy . . . Mr. Watt.

Mrs. (C. B.) Angel called Sunday and asked us to cancel her 'for rent' ad this coming week. She ran the ad just once and received 14 calls. That must be a record.

Jane, since you left home many years ago . . . every now and then a time comes when I can't go any longer without seeing you. The time has come . . . and unless something happens to change my plans, I will see you about 5:00 p. m. on Tuesday, April 30. Can't wait!
Love,
Mom
