Training Union Youth Meeting To Be Held At Baptist Church

Several hundred Baptist young people from all parts of North Carolina will gather at the First Baptist Church of Boone for the Training Union Youth Convention May 3-5. It is expected that there will be seven to eight hundred young people and their leaders in Boone for the convention. The convention theme "One World... One Lord" will feature a number of excellent speakers and conference leaders. Miss Janice Elizabeth Barron (Miss North Carolina) will speak on Friday evening. The Friday evening session will also include a message "A Picture Of Your World" by Joseph Underwood of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board. Johnnie Coe of the First Baptist Church will preside over the Friday night program.

Saturday morning and afternoon will be given largely to a number of group conferences. The conferences and leaders are: "Causation Factors and Preventative Methods in Youth Crime" by Walter F. Anderson, Director of the S. B. L.; "Church and State" by Gaylord Briley of Washington, D. C.; "Church-Related Vocations" by Carlton Carter of the Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn.; "Communism" by Dr. Henlee Barnette of Southern Baptist Seminary of Louisville, Ky.; "Missions" by Joseph B. Underwood; "What Baptists Stand For" by Dr. William C. Smith, BSU Secretary for North Carolina Baptist State Convention and for adult leaders by Mrs. Murray Eisenhauer of First Baptist Church of Asheville and J. Boyce Brooks, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Boone. An address "Will They Make America Catholic?" will be presented by Mr. Gaylord Briley to close the Saturday morning session. Other features during the day will be the State Intermediate Sword Drill and the State Young People's Speakers' Tournament.

Baptist Church Organist Given 25-Year Recognition

Mrs. Graydon P. Eggers received special recognition for twenty-five years of service as the organist of First Baptist Church during the worship service Sunday morning.

At the close of the service, during which the pastor had spoken on "God's Musicians," Mrs. Eggers was escorted to the front of the sanctuary by Mrs. Cecil Farthing. The Rev. J. Boyce Brooks told of the outstanding contributions Mrs. Eggers had made to the church and the community by the use of her musical talent and willingness to serve.

Ted Hagaman, chairman of the deacons, presented Mrs. Eggers with a gift of silver from the church which included a buffet tray, matching sauce boat and footed vegetable bowl. The church choir sang "He, Watching Over Israel," one of Mrs. Eggers' favorites, as a special tribute.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who thought he should pay his debts in full?

Church of Asheville and J. Boyce Brooks, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Boone. An address "Will They Make America Catholic?" will be presented by Mr. Gaylord Briley to close the Saturday morning session. Other features during the day will be the State Intermediate Sword Drill and the State Young People's Speakers' Tournament.

Saturday night Dr. Henlee Barnette will speak on "Christian Response to Communism." Mr. Carl Perry and the youth choir of the First Baptist Church of Asheville will direct the worship periods and special music for the services Friday night and all services on Saturday.

On Sunday morning the Sunday school period for the young people will be in the Elementary School Auditorium. The young people of the First Baptist Church of High Point will present "Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God" in a dramatic setting during the opening period. The Sunday school lesson will be taught by Mr. Alfred Baker a medical student at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine at Winston-Salem. They will join the congregation of the First Baptist Church for the morning worship service as Joseph B. Underwood brings the message on "Following Jesus."

Miss Katy Ruth Grayson of the Training Union Department of the Baptist State Convention, Raleigh, has made the arrangements for the Training Union Youth Convention.

Jehovah's Witnesses

R. L. Dowell, circuit supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced that Jehovah's Witnesses from the Boone area will attend a circuit assembly in Lexington on May 3-5.

Mr. Dowell said, "The conclave is sponsored as a regular part of an advanced ministerial training program and not a revival. The program is designed to maintain a high level of spiritual maturity among both the youth and adult in attendance. The delegates will hear instructions to enable them to apply Bible principles more fully to every day life."

The convention theme is "Right Kind of Ministers." H. A. Cantwell, district supervisor from Brooklyn, N. Y., world headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses, will be the principal speaker. His public address will be on the subject, "Who Will Win the Struggle for World Supremacy?" Upward of 700 are expected to attend.

The matter of your health ought to be more important than almost anything else, to you.

Dr. Depp At First Methodist Sunday Morning

DR. DEPP

Dr. Mark Depp, minister-emeritus of Centenary Methodist Church in Winston-Salem, will preach at the Boone Methodist Church Sunday, it was announced by the Rev. Preston Hughes, Jr., pastor. He will speak at the 11 a. m. service.

Dr. Depp was born in Punxsutawney, Pa., and graduated from the Allegheny College and Boston University School of Theology. In 1945, he became the minister of Centenary and remained there until 1961, when he was made minister emeritus. He was a member of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences of the Methodist Church in 1944, and for the ensuing quadrennium, a member of the Committee on the Crusade for Christ, and the Commission on World Peace. In World War I, he was a chaplain in the U. S. Army.

Dr. Depp has been active in many civic organizations, and has served on several boards and committees in Winston-Salem and North Carolina. He is a member of the Winston-Salem Housing Authority, the Rotary and Torch Club, and of the Honorary Fraternity Delta Sigma Rho. He has traveled in South America, Europe, and the Middle East, and in 1958 was an exchange preacher to England.

YOUTH JOBS BILL

The Senate approved President Kennedy's program to put thousands of American youths to work on conservation and community projects.

The House would have to give its approval before the youngsters could be sent into parks and forests and into local hospitals and libraries.

The legislation deals with two programs which, proponents say, will provide up to 100,000 jobs a year to those in the 16-21 age bracket.

Few persons can be as tire-some as the individual obsessed with a sense of humor.

Almost anybody can plan but it takes work and intelligence to execute a program.
