Miss Love, Mr. Perry Married

MRS. NED M. PERRY

Miss Martha Jean Love, daughter of Mrs. Coy Love, and the late Mr. Love of Vilas, became the bride of Ned M. Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Perry, of Zionville, on Sunday, May 5 at 4:00 p.m., in the Brushy Fork Baptist Church.

Rev. A. C. Moody, brother-in-law of the bride, and the Rev. J. E. Crump performed the double ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Jim Aldridge, organist, Howard Hayes singing "O Perfect Love" and Claude Austin singing "Whither Thou Goest."

The church was decorated with center spray of crotium fern, and baskets of larkspur, interspersed with seven branch candelabras.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Howard Love, wore a floor-length, Princess Styled gown of nylon net and satin with an overskirt and bodice of chantilly lace, which extended down the long tapering sleeves. The dress was accented by a draped waist of nylon chiffon. Her fingertip veil, with imported illusion, was attached to a cornet of lace, embroidered with sequins and seed pearls.

She carried a colonial bouquet, centered with large white orchid, and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Lewis Henson, sister of the bride, was Matron of Honor. She wore a ballerina length dress with three tier ruffled skirt, in pink satin and brocade. She wore matching headdress, shoes and gloves and carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. Bob Futrelle, sister of the groom, from Goldsboro, and Mrs. Chester Calhoun, of Raleigh, wore dresses of baby blue, styled identical to that of the Matron of Honor. They also wore matching accessories and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Chester Calhoun of Raleigh served as best man. Ushers were Jimmy Love, brother of the bride, Leonard Hampton of Asheville and Bob Futrelle of Goldsboro, brothers-in-law of the groom and Bobby Spence of Raleigh.

The mother of the bride wore a sheath dress, in Dusty Rose, with trimmings of matching satin on bodice. She had white accessories.

The mother of the groom wore a light blue sheath with lace yoke and white accessories.

Both mothers had identical corsages of carnations, matching their dresses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church for members of the families. A white and pink color scheme was used for decorations. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Albert Yates, Mrs. Howard Dancy, Mrs. Ralph Wilson, and Mrs. Hiram Brooks.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip and will return to Raleigh where they will make their home.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of navy file with white and navy accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Perry is a graduate of Cove Creek High School and for the past two and one-half years has been employed by Coe Insurance and Realty Company of Boone.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Cove Creek High School and is employed by the State Highway Commission in Raleigh.

Engaged

MISS ROSEMARY AYRES

An engagement of special interest in Watauga county is that of Miss Rosemary Shuler Bassett Ayres and Mr. Jacob Loftin Mock, Jr., which is scheduled for 3 p. m. on June 22 in the Boone Methodist Church.

Rosemary, a student at Madison College, Harrisonburg, Virginia, is the daughter of Mrs. Henry Clay Ayres (originally Miss Ethel Shuler of Orangeburg County, South Carolina) and the late Reverend H. C. Ayres of the North Georgia Methodist Conference. The Reverend and Mrs. Ayres were American missionaries of the Methodist Mission in the Belgian Congo, and Rosemary was born in Africa.

Rosemary's father was decorated in 1947 by the Belgian government for his contribution to native welfare in the Belgian Congo. Rosemary's mother has taught for the past five years in Methodist - sponsored Ferrum Junior College, Ferrum, Virginia, and now resides at "Hearthstone Summit," Poplar Hill Drive, Boone.

Rosemary is the niece of the late Dr. Homer L. F. Shuler of the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Mock, a junior at the University of North Carolina, is the son of Mrs. S. Howard Monroe of Laurinburg, and the late Mr. J. L. Mock, Sr. Both of these young people plan to continue their education at the University of North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Council left Monday for Raleigh where Mrs. Council will spend a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Robert E. Leake and family, while Mr. Council is on a business trip in the eastern part of the state.

Council Of Garden Clubs Meets Tuesday

The Watauga Council of Garden Clubs met Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. H. Plemmons, with Mrs. Herman W. Wilcox, president, presiding.

Mrs. Wilcox announced that the Blowing Rock Garden Council had joined the Boone organization to form the Watauga Council of Garden Clubs, and that any future new clubs in the county, which meet the requirements, would be included in the Watauga Council.

Plans for the summer tour of homes and flower show were discussed, and Mrs. Lee Reynolds, who, with Mrs. B. W. Stallings, is co-chairman of the event, announced that the show would be held August 8. Six homes are planned for the tour.

The summer cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Norris has been chosen to illustrate mountain summer living, and the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Latta Johnson, overlooking the golf course, will exhibit arrangements of interest to golfers, ski enthusiasts, followers of Isaac Walton, bowling and other such recreations. Another home will be chosen to stress entertainment in the home—such as teas, receptions, other parties — a home with a view will show what Watauga has to offer in scenery, unsurpassed anywhere in the world, Watauga people believe.

Blowing Rock members present were Mrs. J. H. Reineking, Mrs. C. W. Courtney, and Mrs. T. Robert Snyder.

Judge Hickory Flower Show

Mrs. R. H. Harmon, Mrs. B. W. Stallings, and Mrs. Lee Reynolds, certified flower show judges, assisted in judging a show presented by the Hickory Garden Council, held in the Corinth United Church of Christ located in the Viewmont section of Hickory, Wednesday, May 1.

The theme of the show was "The Curtain Goes Up On Spring", and titles of Broadway shows and musicals, and of the Carolina outdoor dramas were used to name the classes in the arrangement division. "My Fair Lady", "The Music Man", "The Lost Colony", and "Horn in the West" were among the plays interpreted by floral arrangements. The local judges commented, "It was a unique, outstanding show—well planned and well executed."

The judges luncheon which was held at Lake Hickory Country Club also followed the "Curtain Goes Up" theme. In addition to the fifteen judges, Mrs. P. W. Deaton, judges chairman and Mrs. J. R. Jones, Jr., President of the Hickory Garden Council, were present for the luncheon.

There was no report from the committees and since there was no further business the meeting was turned over to the program chairman. The program was on pruning.

Each member present named a shrub and gave a short descriptive comment on her shrub. The comments were informative and the questions lively with interest.

Hostesses Mrs. T. R. Snyder, Mrs. Kenneth Forbes and Mrs. Robert Snyder served a delicious morning coffee. The buffet table was covered with a gay linen cloth of orange and yellow, the colors were picked up in a floral centerpiece of single and double jonquils arranged in a beautiful low copper bowl. On the mantel was another attractive arrangement of japonica with a background of toxus cuspidata.

Mrs. H. R. Reed will be the hostess for the May meeting.

Cove Creek Home Club

The Cove Creek Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Coy Billings on April 23 for its regular meeting. There were ten members present.

The president opened the meeting with the members repeating the Home Demonstration Club Member's Creed.

Mrs. Billings reported on the District IV meeting which was held in Spruce Pine April 18.

Mrs. Mae Payne, project leader, gave a demonstration on window hardware. Mrs. Nora Wilson had several arrangements of spring flowers and told of the easiest ways to arrange them to make them most effective.

Mrs. James Mast had two contests for entertainment. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Wigs help in choosing a new hair color.

Engaged

MARY ANNE TATE

Mrs. L. M. Tate of Pinehurst and Blowing Rock announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Anne, to Mr. William K. Garde of Clinton, New Mexico, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Garde of Clinton, New Mexico and Baltimore, Maryland.

Mr. Garde is an assistant trainer to Johnny Catter of Laurel, Maryland, who is a trainer of race horses and steeplechasers.

A June wedding is planned.

JEAN'S PERSONAL COLUMN Dear Jane And Rachel:

By JEAN L. RIVERS

Your daddy and I arrived home about 4:00 Sunday afternoon . . . much earlier than we had thought it would be. Just happened to be one of those times when everything worked well. No rain after we passed St. Louis, most lights cooperated by turning green as we approached them and traffic was lighter than usual. We saw one minor accident which we think is a record for such a long trip.

Jane, I thoroughly enjoyed my visit with you and Art . . . my only objection being that it was not nearly long enough. The dinner Tuesday night was superb, and it was good to see both of you looking so well. The drive from Chattanooga to Nashville is beautiful . . . even ran into a portion of Defense Highway about midway between the two cities and this was an unexpected pleasure. I stopped in Nashville for lunch at Holiday Inn and went on to Paducah, Ky. where I met your daddy, as planned, for the trip on to see Rachel (in Columbia, Mo.) It is now possible to make this trip, eat all meals and stay overnight in Holiday Inns, which we like very much. By doing this we are assured of good food and nice comfortable beds . . . to say nothing of the $5,000,000 insurance they carry on all guests while registered there and for twelve hours following check-out time.

As usual, Rachel, the journalism banquet was wonderful and our visit with you was still better. We enjoyed meeting more of your friends and wish we could have stayed longer. I forgot to tell you I met Robert Hyland following the banquet Friday night. Jane . . . he is vice president of CBS Radio and general manager of KMOX in St. Louis, who was one of 7 receiving an honor award for distinguished service in journalism given by the University of Missouri School of Journalism this year. I think he is the second person in radio to ever receive this award. He made the best speech of any I heard and I told him so. My comments seemed to highly please him . . . and this was not idle chatter. He was outstanding!

Now I want to continue our tour through the Johnson home. We came out of the bedroom wing, through the foyer and into the dinette and kitchen. The walls in these rooms are done in soft gold, the chintz draperies have a small design of gold, aqua and green on a beige background. An antique white ornamental chandelier with gold trim is used in the dinette. The built-in desk just inside the door is of the same design of the kitchen and dinette cabinets, which are done in soft beige with gold trim.

In the kitchen, the most complete one I have seen, they used two turquoise refrigerator-freezers on opposite sides of the room. The matching stove has two ovens, a rotisserie, four burners and a filter fan. The stove and the stainless steel sink are the latest things to come on the market. The sink has triple compartments, two large sinks on each side of a smaller one that is the disposal. Another nice feature is the crystal closet that is entered from the kitchen. The walls of the closet are lined with rows of narrow shelves and loaded with beautiful crystal. I stood there and drooled! Beyond a sliding door is the utility room, a half bath and through a door in the utility room is a large storage room filled with a big variety of food.

In addition to all this, they have underground cables for their television and electricity . . . and four apartments with mighty nice people living in them. I had a good time and I sincerely wish both of you could have been with me on the tour.
