JEAN'S PERSONAL COLUMN

Dear Jane And Rachel:

First thing this morning we are planning to start some remodeling on the back apartment over the Democrat office. It is a project I have wanted to tackle for a long time and I can't wait to get it done. We hope to have it ready by June 1st, and I will keep you posted on our progress.

Last Tuesday afternoon I went by the grocery store to pick up a few things and while there ran into Virginia Linney, who was doing some shopping and taking her little toy terrier, Nicky, for his weekly outing. He is one of the cutest and most intelligent dogs I have seen. We bought and discussed dogs at length and after awhile ran into Jim Marsh and three sons. Soon I noticed something was wrong with one of the youngsters, and it turned out that they also have the same kind of dog who is named Nicky. The little boy thought Virginia had his dog and he was upset no end. He couldn't wait to get home and I am sure he was very happy to find their Nicky was still with them. Isn't it unusual that the dogs are identical and have the same name?

Went down late Wednesday afternoon to take another peek at infant Kim Lewis. She has completely captured my heart... smiles often while sleeping and she "rules the roost" when she is ready to eat. Saw one of my old friends, Mrs. Jim Miller, while visiting the Lewises. She's a honey... was a Lewis before she married Mr. Jim. Don't think we are related.

Something happened on the way home that afternoon. A storm was brewing and I was meeting two women who were walking. My first impulse was to stop and take them home, even though I had never seen either of them before. Cars were coming in all directions, I was late starting my evening meal, and I came on home, I still don't feel good about this. Wish I had followed my first impulse.

Just before leaving the office Wednesday afternoon a young girl came and wanted a Kennedy-Johnson sticker. We didn't have one but went to all sorts of trouble and finally found one at Jay Goodnight's. Seems she had destroyed one that belonged to her roommate at A. S. T. C. ... which resulting in a bad situation... friendship wise
