Greer-Critcher Wedding Saturday

MRS. SAMMY CRITCHER

Miss Gloria Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greer, and Sammy Critcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Critcher, were married Saturday, July 6, at 4 o'clock in the Laurel Springs Baptist Church.

The bride wore a dress of white Chantilly lace with sequins and pearls and a full skirt. Her illusion veil was attached to a pearl-encrusted headpiece, and she carried a white orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Betty Sibert, sister of the bride, who wore an aqua peau de soie dress and carried a bouquet of white roses.

The groom had his brother,

Dwight Critcher, for best man. Roger Critcher was ring bearer, and Giovanna Hartley was flower girl.

The mother of the bride wore a blue embroidered dress and the mother of the groom wore a pink lace dress. Both wore matching accessories.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Appalachian High School and is employed at the Northwestern Bank. The groom graduated from Appalachian High School and is self employed.

After a wedding trip to Asheville and Gatlinburg, they are living in Boone.

MRS. WALTER MAY

Miss Karen Combs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Combs, of Hillsboro, and Walter May, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dexter May of Reese, were married at 6 o'clock Saturday, July 6. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Johnny Greene at Forest Grove Baptist Church. Mrs. Mozella Matheson presented the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of chiffon with a white lace jacket. Her short veil of net was attached to a crown of white satin and pearls, and she carried a colonial bouquet.

Mrs. Dorcas Hodges of Reese, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. Best man was Mr. Kenneth May of Reese.

The bride graduated from Hillsboro High School and attended Appalachian State Teachers College.

The groom attended Bethel High School and is now with Sonoco Products Co. in Ravenna, Ohio, where the couple will live following a wedding trip to the Smokey Mountains.

RATTLESNAKE BITES BEAN PICKER

Lenoir.—Mrs. J. L. Curtis of Patterson, teacher at Happy Valley School, was bitten by a rattlesnake Saturday afternoon while she was picking beans at her home.

She was brought to Caldwell Memorial Hospital here in critical condition by her son and remained in an iron lung until her condition was reported much improved.

Hospital attendants said the snake bit her on the left hand. It was coiled under bean vines.

What's New On The Beach

This new tote bag has a secret. Unload your towel, swim suit, sandals and sun tan oil—and with a few puffs your bag becomes a beach pillow. You blow it up.

Latest to come out of aerosol cans: glue. The stick stuff is simply sprayed on, thus promising to end the mess of trying to apply glue with a brush or stick.

For babies six months and older: A new bib fits snugly at the neck, covers the shoulders and has a deep catch-all pocket which goes all the way across the bottom. Sold in supermarkets.

A new cordless cord men's electric shaver can be operated on any one of three universal voltage ranges. A special multivolt transformer allows for recharging in almost any country.

The newest in long-line lipsticks promises a "flirty" fashion look with a range of six shades and a slender case with tapestry-like finish.
