Dowling-Davis Vows Exchanged

MRS. GEORGE EARL DAVIS, JR.

The marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Dowling of Boone to George Earl Davis, Jr., of Hickory was solemnized July 13 at four o'clock at the Boone Methodist church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard Crowder, pastor, and Rev. Judson Dowling Hulse of Baltimore, Md.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace O'Neal Dowling, Jr., of Boone. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Earl Davis of Hickory.

During the ceremony, a quintette featuring Mrs. John Barnett, Miss Roberta Wooder, Miss Jane Hodges, Phil Kelly and Hoyt Safrit, under the direction of Mr. Safrit, and Mrs. Robert Agle, organist, presented a program of nuptial music.

Airman Third Class Wayne Williams of Lackland AFB, Colorado, arrived July 2 to spend a month with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Williams.

Mrs. C. B. Angell has returned home after spending three weeks in Raleigh with her grandchildren Tim, Steve, and Scott Isaacs while the children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Isaacs, were in New York, Chicago, and Detroit where Mr. Isaacs was holding NCEA conferences.

Mr. Nathaniel R. Davidson and his mother, Mrs. Ella Bodend Davidson of Perrine, Fla. arrived last week to spend the remainder of the summer at their home, "Doe Fork" on Howard's Creek Road. Mrs. Davidson will also spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. D. E. Clark and family at Parkersburg, Va. Va.

Mrs. Mae Brown, who has been ill, is improving at her home. Recent visitors were Sallie L. Thomas of Hickory, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Proffitt of Mountain City, Tenn., Mrs. Frank Baird of Vilas, Mrs. Wayne Baird of Conover, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn May and Glens of Trade, Tenn., Mrs. Russell Oliver, Pvt. Johnny Lawrence and Mrs. Lawrence of Ft. Sill, Okla., and Mrs. Nora Bumgardner of Zionville.

Sunday guests in the home of Mrs. W. D. Farthing included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farthing of Mecksville, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Farthing of Norfolk, Va., Ralph Farthing of Lenoir, Mrs. R. M. Sasser of Goldsboro, Mr. and Mrs. James Farthing, Larry and Harry of Taylorsville, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Graybeal and Shirley of West Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parker of High Point, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Tatterton of New York City, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Morgan of King George, Va., Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan of Durham, Mrs. Sam Goforth, Eric and Karen of Camden, S. C. and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goforth of Clemmons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Maurer original gown of imported hand-clipped Chantilly lace over satin. Lace formed the long-sleeved bodice and upper part of the gathered skirt which flowed into a lace-appliqued cathedral train. Her veil was attached in draped tiers to a Juliet headpiece of Chantilly lace and pearls. Her white satin-covered prayer book, which belonged to her uncle, was topped with a white orchid. A diamond centered heart necklace and strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, were her only ornaments. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. James B. Winkler presented the bride a white lace handkerchief.

The bridal attendants wore afternoon dresses of similar sheath design in pastel pink silk taffeta, over which was worn a three-tired tunic skirt fastened at the waist with individual rosettes. Their headpieces were circles of rosettes attached to a wide brim of pink net. They carried bouquets of pink baby's breath complimented by deeper pink roses.

The flower girls were attired in short, full skirted dresses designed in pink silk organza over bouffant underskirts. Their headpieces were of pink and white roses with matching ribbons.

Attendants Mrs. C. B. Craig, Jr., of Cincinnati, Ohio, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Attendants included Miss Suzanne Martin of Franklin, Ky.; Miss Noel Holman and Miss Linda Little of West Jefferson; Miss Peggy Kendall, Greensboro; and Mrs. Addison Poole, Jr., sister of the bridegroom, of Charlotte. Flower girls were Cynthia Ann and Sally Lind Craig, nieces of the bride.

Mr. Davis was his son's best man. Ushers were Addison Poole, Jr., brother-in-law of the bridegroom of Charlotte; C. B. Craig, Jr., of Cincinnati, brother-in-law of the bride; Leonard Eckard and David Wysonz of Hickory, Kenneth Ross of Morganton, Frank Mast Payne, Jr., and Jack Martin Thomas of Boone, cousins of the bride.

The bride's mother wore an aqua chiffon afternoon dress. She wore matching accessories and her corsage was of baby orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose an afternoon dress of Riviera pink chiffon with matching accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Appalachian State Teachers College where she was a member of Pi Kappa Delta, forensic society. She made her debut at the 1959 North Carolina Debutante Ball at Raleigh. For the past two years she has taught in the Winston-Salem school system.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Clemson College, having majored in industrial management. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Zeta fraternity.

Following the wedding Major and Mrs. John H. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mast Payne, aunts and uncles of the bride, entertained with a reception at the Thomas home on Cherry Drive, Boone. Mrs. Irene Estep of Lenoir directed the reception.

The guests were welcomed by Major and Mrs. Thomas who directed them to the wedding party which received in the living room. Floral decorations in shades of pink, complementing the wedding bouquets and dresses, were throughout the room. Receiving the guests in the dining room was Mrs. W. T. Payne, Jr.

The ivory, tiered, embossed wedding cake was topped with a miniature arrangement of gypsophila and pale yellow roses and centered the bride's table which was covered with an ivory, cut-work cloth. On either side of the cake were flanked silver branched candelabra holding ivory tapers.

Individual diamond-shaped petit fours, wedding punch, nuts, and mints, complementing a color scheme of ivory and yellow, were served. Assisting at the bridal table were Mrs. James Council, Mrs. William Matheson and Mrs. J. C. Cline. Presiding at the bridal register were Mrs. Inez Ellis and Mrs. W. T. Payne, Sr.

Assisting at the gift display were Mrs. A. E. Hamby, Jr., Mrs. Len Hagaman and Mrs. Ted Glenn.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mast Payne.

Following the reception, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip. The bride wore for her traveling costume a beige linen suit with flowered print blouse and matching accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After September 1, the couple will reside at 3221 Murray Street, Columbia, S. C., where the bridegroom will complete a tour of duty with the United States Army.

Out-Of-Town Guests

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Carroll Abee, Mrs. John Barrinier, Dr. and Mrs. Lester L. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hutton, Mrs. Jacob C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Jones, Mr. William B. Knight, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. Reid Lneloerger, Mr. and Mrs. John Garnett Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Poole, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sills, Mrs. Paul Fox, Miss Elizabeth White, and Mr. Rick Moser, all of Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coursey, Jr., and Mrs. Richard Coleman of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. James Odell, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Clawson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clawson of Lenoir; Miss Linda Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Poole, Jr., Mr. Ro-

JEAN'S PERSONAL COLUMN Dear Jane And Rachel:

Mrs. Ed Qualls called me last week and said the bread recipe I sent you recently was incorrect, so here is the way it should be made.

Homemade Bread
5 pounds all-purpose flour
3 packages dry yeast
5 cups lukewarm water
2 heaping tablespoons salt
2 cups sugar
1 cup shortening

Sprinkle yeast and 2 tablespoons of the sugar over lukewarm water and let work until puffy; sift flour, sugar and salt into large container. Make "well" in center of dry ingredients and put in shortening. Pour yeast water on top of shortening and work with hands until well blended and dough is smooth and not sticky. Grease top of dough, cover and let rise in warm place until doubled in bulk. Work down and divide in five equal portions. Form into five loaves, and put in five greased loaf pans. Cover and let rise in warm place until doubled in bulk. Bake in 350 degree oven for 15 minutes; reduce heat to 325 and continue baking for about 40 minutes, or until golden brown. Yield: 5 large loaves. Freezes beautifully.

I am very sorry I did not take time to read this recipe by copy the first time. From now on I will be more careful. And, I hope Mrs. Lewis Wilson, who was mighty nice to send the recipe to me, has not been bothered by too many telephone calls.

Grant Hodges, a long-time friend, came by for a visit the other day. Grant is living in Florida now and we decided the ideal situation would be to live in Boone half a year and in Florida the cold half. It was a good visit, though entirely too short.

Billie (Cooke) and Maude (Kelley) gave a pretty luncheon for Pat Dowling in Lenoir Thursday. It was a garden party at the home of Irene Estep, and it was a lovely place to be. I enjoyed every minute of the day. Met Mrs. Gifford, wife of the editor of the Hickory Daily Record who goes around the world at the drop of a hat. She is a most interesting person and I was sorry when he had to come home.

Went to the steak dinner Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Zimmerman gave at the Blowing Rock Country Club Wednesday evening. Had great fun there... and at the buffet supper given by the Tom Dysards and the Dick Browns at the club Saturday evening. The season is in full swing and is so exciting. Would be nice if it could last all year.

Wish both of you could have gone to Pat's wedding Saturday. Everything about it was lovely, especially Sara Lind Dowling Craig's two little girls. I'll always be grateful to the young-est one who diverted my attention just as the tears were welling up. I always cry at weddings... which is why I so seldom go. Don't think I ever saw the church decorated prettier. They used pink candles instead of white and I liked them.

Our new paper, The Blowing Rocket, is doing real well. Gary Dalton (the editor) was fortunate in getting Mrs. Laura Pharr to do the society for us. It's good of you to assist at times, Rachel, and between the three of you a mighty good paper is being published. Will send you a copy each week from now on, Jane. Our Democrat is still in great demand and we are having difficulty judging the number of copies to print. Ran out last week. Never dream we would ever need more than 5,000 copies per week. We're delighted, however.

Rachel, you did such a cute story on Jay North, TV's Dennis the Menace, who was at Tweetsie last week. Have heard loads of comment on it. I am sorry I didn't go with you to see him. Time wouldn't permit!

See you soon.
Love,
