This coming season offers a variety of head wear to the woman with a fancy hair-do. There are snoods, scarfs and hoods of every shape and form and also of every fabric and of fur.

The girl who is adept with crochet or knitting needle may whip up a little number which will go well with that prized cardigan or turtle necked sweater. Of if she is good with the needle she may fashion a beautifully lined satin scarf to wear with a bare-shouldered frock.

Dear Jane And Rachel

Dear Jane and Rachel,
The most exciting news this week, Jane, concerns relatives. Rachel and I went to Charlotte Tuesday for a visit with your cousin Jimmie (Rivers Finklea), who moved there recently with her family. To fill you in on the past several months, Jimmie's husband (Dr. Orion Finklea) has completed his residency with Dr. Ruben Flocks, noted urologist at State University of Iowa Medical Center in Iowa City, and has joined Hawes Clinic in Charlotte. The clinic is near Memorial Hospital and they are living just off Providence Road near the new Cotswald Shopping Center. I'm about to leave out the most important part . . . their little Sarah celebrated her first birthday Sunday, the 25th, and on August 5 their other little girl, who has been named Ann Rivers, arrived. Both are adorable! We are thrilled they are so near so we can see them occasionally. They promised to come for a visit before long and I hope you and Art can arrange to come at the same time.

The recipe from Mrs. Charlotte Jones this week will be for Spanish Stew. This was also served at the luncheon given by the Count and Countess de Quinatilla in Madrid.
COCIDA ESPANOL
3-4 pound chick peas
2 quarts water
2 beef bones
1 lb. boned, lean pork shoulder
1 lb. chuck
1-4 lb. fat bacon
3 leeks
3 sprigs parsley
2 carrots
1 tablespoon salt
4 medium potatoes
2 Spanish sausages (1-4 lb.)
Italian sausages could be substituted.
Soak chick peas in water or boil in water for 2 minutes, remove from heat and let stand one hour. Drain; reserve water. Place beef bones, pork, chuck and bacon in reserved water. Bring to a boil; skim. Add peas, leeks, onion, parsley, carrots, salt and sausages. Simmer gently for 2 1/2 hours or until peas are tender. Add potatoes the last 45 minutes. Remove beef bones, skim off fat; adjust seasoning. Remove and strain enough broth to serve as soup. Slice meat and vegetables. Serve in soup plates with remaining broth. Makes 6 portions. Wish I had some of this made for lunch today. The weather has turned quite chilly and this would be quite helpful.

Vernon Brown of Los Angeles and Baxter Bryan of Brookline, Mass., came by for brief visits recently. Vernon has been in Calif. for years and is getting along real well. Baxter says he likes my columns, especially my recipes. It was good to see them.

Linda Jones, our housekeeper, called a few minutes ago to say she couldn't come to work today because her little sister had been in a school bus accident. . . I am so sorry to hear of this and I certainly hope none of the children were seriously injured.

Hope to see you soon,
Love,
Mom.
