Tuckwiller pointed out that burley prices usually follow pretty closely the prices which flue-cured tobacco brings in Blankenship the Piedmont and plains sections of the state. "If that holds true this year, we could expect prices to fall by as much as two or three cents per pound,"

The county agent also said that he had noticed a tendency among some farmers this year to begin cutting their tobacco while it was still too green, a

Hospital And School Plans To Face Test

The voters of Watauga county will go to the polls next Tuesday to pass on the issuance of $2,130,000 in bonds for the construction of a new consolidated high school building and a Watauga County Hospital, and to supply the sites for the structures.

Registration closed last Saturday, and in Boone and New River, where sentiment is considered unusually strong for both proposals, 263 new voters are reported as having registered. Reports from the rest of the county couldn't be secured, but it is presumed that the registration followed a fairly heavy pattern in all the precincts.

Campaigns by the Hospital steering committee and by the School Bond groups are being prosecuted vigorously, and it is being predicted that a very heavy vote will be cast.

The ballot, which appears on this page, contains three propositions:

For or Against the issuance of $1,630,000 bonds for the Central High School structures.

For or Against the issuance of $500,000 to finance the new hospital.

For or Against the special tax of 10 cents annually on each $100 of assessed valuation to finance the cost of operating, equipping and maintaining public hospital facilities for Watauga Coun-

Every effort is again being made today through the columns of the Democrat to acquaint the people with the issues and to urge them to get out and vote.

The election will be held at the usual polling places.

Library Plans Open House

Preceding the regular sche duled opening of the Watauga County Public Library, Tuesday, Sept. 17th, the library will hold open house to the public on Monday afternoon, Sept. 16, from two to five o'clock.

At present the library is closed for the purpose of enlarging and redecorating. With the expanded facilities the library will be able to give greater service to the pepole of all ages for their recreation and information reading. The book collection in the Watauga County Library is seco when he said, "We don't think library in any county of its size there's too much doubt that and population. Everyone is encouraged to visit the library on any day of the year from Tuesday through Saturday.
