

Mountaineers To Host Catamounts Saturday

The Appalachian Mountaineers, winners over Newberry last week, 14-0, will host the Catamounts of Western Carolina College Saturday night in William J. Conrad Stadium. The game is the annual battle between the two mountain state-supported schools and is expected to be the feature attraction in the Carolinas Conference. Western Carolina goes into the game fresh from a smashing 24-0 victory over highly regarded Carson-Newman.

Both teams have outstanding offensive backfields and great defensive line units, so something has to give on Saturday unless last year is to be repeated. The two slugged each other for sixty minutes in Asheville but had to settle for a 6-6 deadlock. Overall, the schools have met 27 times on the gridiron with Appalachian emerging as victor 23 times.

Appalachian is expected to start the same unit that moved the ball so effectively against Wofford two weeks ago. Halfback Nikki Helms, a workhorse with 61 yards against Wofford, failed to play this past week against Newberry because of an injury.

Helms is expected to be in top shape for Western Carolina, assuming his share of the offensive load along with Jim Hayes, Tom Culbreth, and Sherill Norville.

Quarterback Dennis Saunders continues to improve with every game. The junior signal-caller completed four of his first five passes for 68 yards and one touchdown this past week after a fine performance against Wofford two weeks ago. Saunders also has a perfect four for four in extra point attempts.

The Appalachian line is set for the Catamounts in full force. Led in the past two games by tackle Larry Hand, the defensive unit has allowed opponents an average of only 70 yards on the ground. Greg Van Orden, Richard Tickle, and Larry Crutchfield have played excellent football in the first two games, and were instrumental in stopping Newberry's great passer, Tom Gorman, with only one completion last Saturday. Few injuries have turned up, and the regulars are expected to be in full strength for the Catamounts.

LAUSCHE ON GROMYKO

Senator Lausche (D., Ohio) criticized President Kennedy's willingness to discuss with the Soviet Foreign Minister, Andrei A. Gromyko, the possible relaxation of East-West tensions.

Lausche said in a prepared Senate speech that because Gromyko "deliberately lied" about the presence of offensive Soviet missiles in Cuba last year "I am loathe to believe that President Kennedy could ever again place any credence in what Mr. Gromyko might have to say."

THRESHER HUNT ENDS

The Navy has abandoned its search for the submarine Thresher after announcing they had recovered a single bit of copper tubing from the sunken vessel's hull.

Secretary of the Navy Fred Korth announced the recovery of the copper tubing, positively identifying it as part of the Thresher's ventilating system. The approach of fall and rougher weather are expected to make it impossible for the deep-diving bathyscaphe to return to the search area.

Claude Callaway Is Honored

Claude Callaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Callaway of the Foscoe community, was named top editorial writer within the membership of the South Atlantic Council of Industrial Editors at the council's annual conference in Durham, Sept. 12, 13.

Mr. Callaway is editor of Firestone News, employee publication of Firestone Textiles at Gastonia.

This is the fourth time that Firestone News has won distinction since Mr. Callaway became editor. The publication was named best newspaper-type publication among the SACIE membership in 1959, received an award of excellence for photographic achievement in 1961 and was declared first place in industrial photography last year.

The South Atlantic Council of Industrial Editors, with 101

members principally in the two Carolinas, represents employee publications and service journals in industry, business, service organizations and trade circles.

VIETNAM POLICY

President Kennedy says the United States must pursue a policy of patience in South Vietnam and avoid a get-tough slash in aid.

An aid cut, Kennedy said, might bring about a collapse of the Vietnamese Government of Ngo Dinh Diem and open all of Southeast Asia to the threat of a Communist take-over.

The President said there was no easy solution to the Vietnamese problem marked by internal opposition to the Diem regime and the Government's widespread arrest of Buddhists and students.

Avery Farmer Held In Death Of Aged Sister

Newland — George Jaynes, 64-year-old Avery County farmer and cattle raiser, was ordered Thursday night to be held for grand jury action in the slaying Thursday morning of his 60-year-old sister, Miss Thelma Hilda Jaynes.

Miss Jaynes was shot to death in a home about one mile south of here where she lived with a sister, Irene. Her brother lived about half a mile away.

Coroner Carl Osborne said brief testimony at the inquest indicated that "family troubles" led to the shooting.

ASTC Courses In 10 Counties

Extension courses from Appalachian State Teachers College will be offered in 10 counties during the fall quarter, according to Dr. James Stone, director of extension.

Eight credit courses and two non-credit courses will be offered in Avery, Buncombe, Caldwell, Davie, Gaston, Union, Iredell, Surry, Cleveland and Catawba counties. There will be courses in art, library science, English, science, history, mathematics and education.

About 300 students are expected to enroll in the extension courses.

Three Wataugans To Attend Homes Tour

Three Watauga citizens will again represent North Carolina this year in Waterford, Va., at the 20th annual Waterford Foundation Homes Tour and Crafts Exhibit, to be held October 4, 5, and 6.

Banner Elk, who will present a number of mountain crafts of a more masculine variety.

The strange concoction which goes by the name of potpourri, according to Mrs. Nichols, is "a mixture of herbs, flowers and spices, all dried, with oils and preservatives added to make the old-fashioned sweet smelling jars that our grandmothers and their grandmothers used for scenting the parlor or their linens or writing paper which they used for their sweethearts."

FAST RECOVERY

Miami—A passing patrolman saw a youngster fall into a canal. He dived in, pulled the boy out and pumped the water out of him.

When the youngster recovered, he jumped on his bicycle and pedaled away before Patrolman William Tarvey could get his name.
