5. Help patients decorate their reception areas for a holiday.
6. Plant and present dish gardens to convalescent homes or children's homes.
7. Present a program on Flower Arranging to patients who are able to participate in such a program.
8. Make tray covers featuring the beauty of flowers.
9. Place birdhouses and feeders where they may be enjoyed by shut-ins.
10. Place planters in hospitals and arrange flowers for the reception area.
11. Share your flower plants and cut flowers with neighbors, friends or anyone that would benefit from their beauty.

Your daddy and I went to Raleigh Thursday and attended the Friday morning meeting of the N. C. Democratic Executive Committee, which unanimously elected State Senator Lunsford Crew as chairman, replacing Bert Bennett who resigned recently. Following the meeting, Governor and Mrs. Sanford had all members, their husbands and wives to a luncheon at the Executive Mansion to meet Mr. and Mrs. Crew. After the luncheon I had the pleasure of chatting with Mrs. Crew, who is a mighty nice person and will be a big help to her husband. I think Governor Sanford made a wise choice.

Getting back to the meeting for a few seconds... when we entered the Assembly Room of the House of Representatives... almost all the seats were taken. We were beginning to think we would have to stand when a lady called to us to come sit by her. We did... and she was Mrs. Richardson Preyer, whose husband is a candidate for governor. She is charming and we enjoyed chatting with her. We also had a nice visit with the Adrian Shuford, Thad Eure and other old friends. Becky Rivers came for dinner with us Thursday evening and we had breakfast with the Kenneth Andersons Friday morning. It was the best trip we have made to the Capital city in many, many years.

A week ago tonight I was a guest of Daisy Eggers when she entertained her book club. Some of us were allowed to come a little early so we could take a quick tour of their new home, something I had wanted

Blue Ridge Garden Club

The regular luncheon meeting of the Blue Ridge Garden Club was held at the Daniel Boone Hotel on Wednesday, September 18 at 12 noon. Mrs. J. J. Van Noppen, Mrs. R. H. Harmon, and Mrs. H. M. Cooke were hostesses to 17 members and two guests: Mrs. Shelley Cashion of Wadesboro and Boone, and Miss Mildred Lane of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. W. H. Flemmons, club president conducted the business session during which plans were discussed for attendance at the coming district meeting on October 16 at Conover and the board meeting at High Point on September 30 and October 1.

The first part of the program was presented by Mrs. Lee Reynolds who gave a brief talk on the conservation of birds.

The main feature of the program was a member-participation discussion of horticulture efforts with a showing of representative samples of garden flowers. These varied from tiny, dainty, feathery marigolds to a sunflower with a seed pod 11 inches in diameter.

Dear Jane And Rachel

Recipes took all my space last week and I didn't get to tell you what a wonderful time I had at Nancy Williamson's desert bridge party a week ago Tuesday. She and her husband Dick are a charming couple and it is always a pleasure to be in their home.

And, last Tuesday I went to another bridge party given by Mrs. Hazel Baker, who has that new home just beyond the Blowing Rock Country Club. I was interested in it from the beginning and was delighted when she took me on a tour of the home. It is lovely!

Last Monday I attended open house at the newly expanded Watauga County Library and that is something all of us should be proud of. Hope both of you will take time out to go look it over when you are home next.

During the past two weeks I have missed so many nice parties... among them being the tea given by Dr. and Mrs. Plemmons, the luncheon for the Friday Afternoon Club given by Bea Hendrix, Lucy Farthing and Lala Hardin, the dinner party at Lenoir Country Club given by the Cookes and Laughridges and the Fifty Nighters Dance. Wish I could have gone to every one, but conflicts prevented that.

We had frost last night, and a lot of the trees are beginning to show color. Hope they will be pretty for a long time this fall.

Love,
Mom.
