

Speaking Of Golf

By JOE MAPLES

The first round of the annual Boone Golf Club Tournament gets underway this week and ends on Sunday. Young left-hander Sam Adams led qualifiers in the men's division with rounds of 69-72 to take medalist honors while Gertrude Perry made the grade in the ladies' division with 93-99-192. Following are the first round pairings:

Ladies' Championship
 Marie Newton vs. Peggy Withrow.
 Fern Hunt vs. Dolly Matheson.
 Gertrude Perry vs. Elizabeth Edmondson.
 Pearl Dowling vs. Kat Hodges.
Ladies' First Flight
 Peggy Cline vs. L. Patterson.
 Mildred Farthing vs. Jean Winkler.
 Daisy Adams vs. Earle Thomas.
 Martha Watkins vs. bye.
 The ladies will be using full club handicaps in all their matches, with the difference between the handicap of two opponents being applied to the player with the highest handicap. For example, player "A" has a handicap of 36 and player "B" has 30 and they are playing in the first round. The difference is six so player "A" would get six strokes to be used where the score card calls for them. The cards for the first round are already marked and can be picked up at the golf shop when you are ready to play the first match.

Men's Championship
 Defending champion, John Broyhill vs. Estel Wagner.
 Horace Dowling vs. Billy Cook.
 Austin Adams vs. H. J. Cottrell, Jr.
 Jack Groce vs. Benjy Burnett.
 Sam Adams vs. Johnny Parker.
 Bob Masten vs. Sam Travis.

Fifth Flight

Paul Winkler vs. Frank Hagaman.
Jim Holshouser—bye.

Sixth Flight
 Dr. T. S. Adams, Dr. Wm. Matheson, Richard Kelley, and Dr. R. H. Harmon all got byes.

All first round matches listed in this column must be completed no later than next Sunday night with second round to start Monday and continue each week until all are played. A few rules for the tournament. Championship flight will play USGA rules from the blue markers, no improving lie. Other flights, second through sixth will play from white markers and players in these may improve their lie in the fairway of the hole they are playing only.

The woods which separate the sixth and seventh fairways are considered under repair and you may improve your lie in this area. Other than these few that we have mentioned, usual local rules will be in effect.

Two of our ladies did quite well for themselves in a tournament played over the Mimosa Hill Course near Morganton recently. Marie Newton and Judy Barber teamed up to take third place in a best ball event with a score of 65.

The 1963 Carolinas Open will be played at the Midland Valley Country Club near Aiken, South Carolina this week with some seventy Carolinas professionals and fifty or more top amateurs competing for the more than $3300 that will be awarded in prizes. Defending champ Charles Smith will not be able to play but all of the other top golfers will be making an effort to take over the crown that Charlie won last year at Spartanburg.

Apps Down Newberry Devils Take Third Over NCSD, 26-14

By RONNIE HUNT

GREG VAN ORDEN . . . Star Left Guard

Appalachian opened its 1963 conference football season on a 14-0 victory note here Saturday night, striking for touchdowns in the first and third periods while holding Newberry's great passing star, Tom Gorman, to a single completion.

Junior quarterback Dennis Saunders hit end Terry Harbin with a 23-yard scoring play before the game was six minutes old, and Appalachian was never in serious trouble thereafter. The touchdown was made on the first play after end Larry Harbin had returned a Newberry punt to the Indian 23. Saunders booted the point after.

Newberry drove deep into Mountaineer territory twice during the first half, but with its big gun silenced by a bruising Appalachian defense, could not cash in on the opportunities.

Early in the third quarter Appalachian turned one of four Newberry fumbles into a touchdown drive, moving 54 yards in ten plays for the second touchdown of the evening. Halfback Sherrill Norville carried the ball during most of the drive, moving the pigskin 31 yards on five carries. Fullback Jim Hayes drove over from the one for the score, with Saunders again converting for the extra point.

Appalachian defenders played a great game in limiting Newberry and Gorman to only one pass completion out of six attempts. Six times Gorman was smothered by alert defenders before he could get the ball away and one pass was intercepted by tackle Larry Hand.

In the fourth quarter Appalachian had scoring bids stopped on the Newberry seven and 15, but were unable to increase the margin of victory.

Offensive leader for the night was Norville with 67 yards rushing, mostly picked up during the second half. Defensive standouts were Hand, tackle Larry Crutchfield, and guards Greg Van Orden and Richard Tickle.

The Appalachian High School Blue Devils won their third straight game of the 1963 football season with a hard-fought 26-14 decision over the North Carolina School for the Deaf at Morganton on Thursday night, September 19. A brilliant aerial attack led the Devils to a 20-0 halftime advantage, and the NCSD Bears just couldn't catch up.

Appalachian received the opening kickoff but fumbled the ball away on their third offensive play. NCSD failed to move the ball and was forced to punt, putting the Devils deep in their own territory. After picking up two first downs on the ground, junior quarterback Jim Reary faked back and hit Bobby Reary with a 66-yard scoring strike. Wayne Clawson bulled his way through for the extra point. After receiving the ensuing kickoff, NCSD tried a pass but defensive cornerman Alton Johnson intercepted for the Blue Devils, giving Appalachian the ball deep in the Bears' territory. A 15-yard penalty gave the Devils a first down on the NCSD 11-yard line. Successive running plays by Jim Reary, Wayne Clawson, and Phil Hampton set up a first down on the one-yard line. However, it took the Apps four plays to score from there, with the touchdown finally coming on a six-yard pass from Reary to senior end Ronnie Hunt. Phil Hampton's running attempt for the extra point failed, so the Devils held a 13-0 advantage after one quarter of play.

Midway through the second period NCSD, with the aid of several penalties, marched deep into Appalachian territory. The Devil defense stiffened, however, and the Devils took possession of the ball inside their own ten-yard line. Clawson spearheaded an Appalachian running attack which netted two straight first downs and carried the ball up to the 23-yard line. With time running out in the first half, Mike Wilson came in at quarterback for the Apps and immediately threw a 72-yard scoring pass to his brother, Bobby. Reary came back into the game and threw to Ronnie Hunt again for the extra point to give AHS its 20-0 halftime margin.

An inspired NCSD eleven came storming back in the third period to take control of the game. A recovered fumble on Appalachian's 32-yard line set up the Bears' initial tally. Billy Jernigan's five-yard run off tackle capped the scoring march. Jernigan also ran the extra point. The teams battled on almost even terms for most of the remainder of the game. Appalachian's final tally came on an eleven-yard roll-out around left end by Jim Reary. Phil Hampton and Wayne Clawson set up the score with their hard running. NCSD came right back, however, and with less than a minute left in the game, Roger Moss took a pass from Ray Lockamy for a touchdown. Lockamy's run for the extra point made the final score read 26-14.

AHS . . . . . 13 7 0 6-23
 NCSD . . . . . 0 0 7 7-14

AHS—B. Wilson, 66-yard pass from Reary (Clawson run); AHS—Hunt, 6 pass from Reary (run failed); AHS—B. Wilson, 72 pass from M. Wilson (Hunt pass from Reary); NCSD—Jernigan, 5 run (Jernigan run); AHS—Reary, 11 run (run failed); NCSD—Moss, 6 pass from Lockamy. (Lockamy run).

We are often mystified by television and movie dialogues which lead nowhere with a great flourish.

The good neighbor policy should be practiced by more people, as well as countries.

Expect great things from Chevrolet again—for '64

Today...Jet-smooth Luxury '64 CHEVROLET

'64 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan—one of 15 Jet-smooth luxury Chevrolets.

Chevrolet was luxurious before, but you should see it now. With smart new styling, the '64 Chevrolet looks even longer (but isn't). There's even a whole new series this year—the Impala Super Sports—with front bucket seats as standard equipment. (The new Impalas and Bel Airs are more luxurious, too. Even the lowest priced Biscaynes have new foam-cushioned seats front and rear and are fully carpeted.) Of course, you expect more than just luxury from Chevrolet. A choice of 16 power teams, for instance—a 6 and six V8's up to 425 hp (optional at extra cost). And quieter transmissions. Jet-smooth ride with Full Coil suspension. Flush-and-dry rocker panels, Delcotron generator, self-adjusting brakes and other low-upkeep features. If you've ever wondered how luxurious Chevrolet could get—with all the extra-cost options there are to choose from—that seems to be entirely up to you.

Take your first look at the first CHEVELLE!

CHEVELLE! by Chevrolet

New Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe—one of 11 models in three great series.

You've never seen anything like this totally new line of cars before. Chevelle is new in every thing but Chevrolet quality. Chevelle is a good foot shorter than the big cars, so it parks easily. Yet the interior dimensions of its body by Fisher provide a generous amount of head, leg and shoulder room. (Chevelle's trunk is big and roomy, too). The ride is surprisingly smooth with a rugged coil spring at all four wheels. And not so surprisingly for Chevrolet, the new Chevelle offers a choice of engines ranging from an economical 120-hp 6 to a 220-hp V8 (optional at extra cost.) Choose the Chevelle you like best from the three series—the Malibu Super Sport, the Malibu and the 300 Series, eleven models in all—at your Chevrolet dealer's. (Like this good-looking Malibu Super Sport, maybe?)
