Miss Triplett, Mr. Greene Marry

MRS. MELVIN WILSON GREENE

Miss Gloria Triplett and Mr. Melvin Wilson Greene were married Saturday, September 28, at 2:30 p. m. in Setzer's Creek Baptist Church in Lenoir. The double ring ceremony was performed by their pastor, the Rev. Bill Hamby.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Gurnie R. Triplett of Route One, Boone, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Greene of Route five, Lenoir. A program of wedding music was given by Miss Sandra Winkler, pianist, and Miss Linda Conley, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace fashioned with a Sabrina neckline accented by irridescent, long tapered sleeves and basque bodice. Tiers of lace formed the bouffant skirt that swept into a chapel train. Her veil of English illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and irridescent, and she carried a white Bible topped with white feathered carnations.

Miss Angela Triplett, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress of ice blue peau de soie featured a scoop neckline, short sleeves and a softly pleated skirt. She wore matching accessories and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and pom-pom mums. Her matching circular veil was held in place by a clip-on band of woven peau de soie.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Cooper Triplett, Mrs. Doyle Baker and Miss Ann Watson. They wore street-length sheath dresses of midnight blue peau de soie with scooped neckline, fitted bodice and short sleeves. They wore matching accessories, headpieces identical to that of the maid of honor, and carried nose gays of pink and white carnations and pom-pom mums. Each attendant wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bride.

Doyle Baker, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Ralph Triplett, cousin of the bride, Claude Storie, Bill Carlton of Lenoir and Bobby Greene, brother of the groom, who is with the U. S. Marines stationed in Parkersburg, West Virginia. Stevie Baker, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a knit dress of cranberry and white and the mother of the groom wore a beige and gold knit suit. Both wore an orchid corsage and black accessories. The couple greeted the guests informally in the vestibule of the church immediately following the ceremony.

Cake Cutting Following the wedding rehearsal Friday night, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table which was overlaid in pink and covered with a white lace cloth, held the three-tiered white wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Crystal holders entwined with ivy held lighted pink tapers. A color note of pink, green, and white was carried out in other appointments and refreshments. The bride wore a pink chiffon dress and wore a nose gay of pink carnations. After the bridal couple cut the traditional first slice, Miss Mildred Greene finished serving the cake. Mrs. Howard Smith presided at the punch bowl.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at their home on Green Valley Drive, Lenoir.

For travel, the bride chose a sheath dress of winter white knit with black accessories and wore the corsage lifted from her Bible.

Mrs. Greene was graduated from Happy Valley High School and is employed by Dula Hospital in Lenoir.

Mr. Greene attended Happy Valley High School and is employed at Blowing Rock Furniture Company.

Mrs. Reynolds introduced Mrs. E. L. Ray who had charge of the program. Mrs. Ray had asked each member to bring a fall poem for the program "Autumn Leaves." Mrs. Ray gave her poem from memory. The poems were varied and interesting.

Mrs. Ray and co-hostess Mrs. E. L. Payne served a delicious desert with coffee following the meeting. A social hour was enjoyed by the 18 members present.

Members voted to cooperate with the Garden Council in the Decorations Contest, in the division of doors. Named to this committee were Mrs. Roy Isley, Mrs. J. E. Chipman, and Mrs. Thomas Tedford.

Mrs. Charles E. Scruggs was elected to membership in the club. Welcomed as new members were Mrs. Harvey Ayers and Mrs. Tedford.

Mrs. Ray announced the district meeting will be in Morganton October 29. In connection with the meeting, a tour of the new Western Carolina Center will be arranged.

The club wishes to express appreciation to anyone who donated articles for the recent rummage sale, and to those who helped in other ways to market the sale successful.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the hostesses served a delicious dessert course.

Lit., Ed. Dept. Has Meeting

The Literature and Education Department of the Worth-while Women's Club met with Mrs. E. L. Ray, Moretz St. on October 3.

In the absence of the Chairman, Mrs. Louise De Lima, also the co-chairman, Mrs. Fran Weber, Mrs. Lee Reynolds presided. Mrs. E. L. Payne, secretary, gave a report of the last meeting. There was no old business to take up and Mrs. Reynolds called for names of members who could go to the District meeting at Morganton October 29th. Several indicated they would be on tap for the meeting. Mrs. Reynolds announced that a trip to the home for retarded children for those attending would be the highlight of the entertainment following the business session.

Mrs. Reynolds brought up the matter of selling Christmas cards for UNICEF, the proceeds of which would go to feed hungry children or furnish education of children of foreign lands who were badly in need of such. It was unbelievable what the proceeds of $1.25 would do if given through UNICEF. The club decided to order 60 boxes to be disposed of by the members or to the members of the club. This should be a contribution from each member to a wonderful cause for the betterment of humanity in the making.

Mrs. Reynolds introduced Mrs. E. L. Ray who had charge of the program. Mrs. Ray had asked each member to bring a fall poem for the program "Autumn Leaves." Mrs. Ray gave her poem from memory. The poems were varied and interesting.

Alpha Gamma Chapter Meets

The Alpha Gamma Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met at the Daniel Boone Hotel Saturday, October 5, at 1 p. m. During the business session Miss Thelma Laws, president, announced the appointment of a special committee on expansion consisting of Mrs. Edna Bivens, Miss Laura McConnell, and Miss Ruby Akers. Plans were made for ten members to attend the Region VIII meeting at Wake Forest College October 12. Mrs. Allie Hodgkin is the new director for Region VIII.

Mrs. Margaret Gragg, chairman of the membership committee, presented names of nominees for membership.

The program, "Our Own Women Leaders," was presented by Mrs. Mary Belle Greene, Mrs. Gaynelle Wilson, and Miss Laura McConnell. They discussed in turn the lives and contributions of Miss Mattie Sale of Wilkes County, Mrs. Arizona Houston Hughes of Avery County, Mrs. Stella Williams Anderson of Ashe County, Mrs. Cora Eller was chairman of the program committee.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames Sarah Horton, Sammie Lou Anderson, Grace Council, Marie Jackson, and Miss Mary Nichols. There were 42 members present.

Beaver Dam Home Club

Mrs. Mack Rominger was hostess to the Beaver Dam Home Demonstration Club September 30.

Mrs. Danner, Home Agent, gave a demonstration on "Are You a Good Consumer?". She discussed the use of time, money and energy. Several business items were discussed and achievement day plans and articles selected.

The club will have a quilt-show booth.

Mrs. Cecil Swift will be the October hostess. The hostess served delicious refreshments to those present.

Birthday Party, Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McBane of North Miami, Fla. and Boone, entertained on Friday, with a cocktail party and dinner, celebrating Mrs. McBane's birthday. The home was decorated in autumn colors. Local guests included Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Storie, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford and Mr. Nelson Storie of Aho, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Edmisten of Blowing Rock. Also Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Yoder and son of Hickory and Boone and Miss Maxann Norris.

Boone Junior Woman's Club

The regular meeting of the Boone Junior Woman's Club was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Harlan Ledford on Highland Avenue Extension. Serving as co-hostess was Mrs. Paul Branch.

The program was given by Mrs. Richard Barker, immediate past president, who discussed Project Hope, one of the national federation projects of Junior clubwomen.

Project Hope, a unique hospital ship, visits various countries of the world to provide medical aid to the people and education in current medical practices to the doctors of the country. The ship, directed by a foundation, is supported entirely by contributions from the American people. The personnel abroad give their time and skills at a great financial loss. In all cases, the personnel work closely with the medical persons of the country being visited.

JEAN'S PERSONAL COLUMN Dear Jane And Rachel:

Another busy week is gone. Worked last Monday, as usual, and on Tuesday I went to Circle 5 of W. S. C. S. for the first time in several weeks. Now that the golfing season is about over and we are back to our regular meeting time, I hope to go often. We met at the home of Bea Hendrix with Lalla Hardin as co-hostesses. . . and it is always a pleasure to be in Bea's lovely home. Both of you should see her antiques as soon as possible.

Most of Wednesday was spent at home helping do some much-dreaded chores. The basement is now spic and span, and it is such a good feeling that both floors of the garage are slated for the great toss-out some time this week. I'll be glad when that is done so we will have room for our winter's supply of fire wood.

Thursday afternoon I rode over to Blowing Rock . . . for no reason except to see the beautiful foliage. I have been around a lot of years and I say again that I have never seen a lovelier sight than the leaves have been this past week. I came back and stopped for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Shearon, who have invited the public to come by and see the view from their motel. It is beautiful there and well worth a special trip. Though it was Mrs. Shearon's busy time of day, she served tea and cookies and showed me three units of her motel. It is an exceptionally nice place and I appreciate her hospitality.

Margaret Coffey had such a nice bridge-luncheon Saturday morning at the log cabin her sons (Armfeld and Frank) own and helped to build on the highest mountain above the Poplar Grove road . . . near Hodges Gap. Beauty is plentiful up there, and I had a real good time. It was good to see Louise DeLima there. She made a remarkable recovery from a very serious illness and all of us are thankful. Forgot to tell you that we had a nice visit with Louise's daughter, Pat, before she returned to her home in California two weeks ago. She is looking the best ever.

A mighty nice new building is almost completed on the Coffey lot opposite Dr. J. B. Hagan's office. Jack Feimster will occupy half of the building for the women's department of Varsity Shop, and I hear a Mr. Ayers will open a children's shop in the other side. I like the antique brick they used on the front of the building . . . and its another nice addition to our town.

New houses are springing up all over the place . . . must be close to 100 in Boone, no telling how many in Blowing Rock and the rest of the county. When I can find time to investigate, I will give the exact number. You will be astounded, I bet!

Dempsey Wilcox, Jr., who has been living in Newland for several years, has moved his family back to Boone and will soon open a variety store in the building formerly occupied by Boone Tire and Bargain Store. I have been watching the remodeling, painting and etc. with interest. He is going to have a nice place, and we are glad he is back in the old home town.

I've had so many requests for Ellen Payne's recipe for Chicken Tetrazzini that I have decided to print it again. This is wonderful to have in the freezer in case you need a quickie meal . . . as I do most of the time.

Chicken Tetrazzini
4 cans undiluted mushroom soup
4 cans mushrooms
2 whole pimentoes, chopped
Parmesan cheese
4 or 6 oz. can blanched almonds
5 or 6 lb. hen or turkey, cooked and cut in small pieces
1 package spaghetti cooked in the chicken stock. Drain, if not absorbed.
Mix all together, bake in casserole at 300 degrees for 1 hour.
About ten minutes before time is up, take out of oven, stir in one-third cup sherry and sprinkle heavily with cheese. Return to oven until hot. Allow longer baking if the casserole has been made ahead and stored in refrigerator, or freezer.
Serves 12 to 15.

I just now heard that Mrs. Laura Moody of Cove Creek had died and was buried at Henson's Chapel yesterday. I certainly wish I had known earlier. She had been ill about three weeks, but I heard she was improving. The family has my deepest sympathy. Must get busy with other copy now.
Love,
Mom
