Rev. Mr. Story Is Back From Europe Tour

Rev. Jack T. Story, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Story, of Lexington, former residents of Watauga County, returned Friday from a month's tour of Europe and the Middle East. He was accompanied by two other Baptist ministers.
They visited Italy, France, Germany, Egypt, Lebanon and many other countries. With Rev. Mr. Story were Rev. Grady Lemmons, Shelby, and Rev. Charles Thomas, Garland, Texas.
The ministers visited Rev. P. V. Zugg, a missionary in Lebanon, who is supported by the pastors and their congregations. They also have a mission station, which the churches operate in Jerusalem.
Rev. Mr. Story is pastor of Wayside Baptist Church in Lexington. Only six years old, the church has a membership of 400. The church made it possible for Rev. Mr. Story to make the trip to the Holy Land and the church-supported mission fields.
During the pastor's absence, visiting ministers held regular services for him at his church each Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. Mr. Allen Will Preach At Valle Crucis

The famous Frank K. Allan of Dalton, Georgia, will be the missionary preacher at the Preaching Mission being held at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross in Valle Crucis.
The Rev. Mr. Allan, his wife and three children, have been living in Dalton for more than five years. He has made a tremendous impact on the local community and has become famous for conducting preaching missions all over the south-east.
The Preaching Mission, titled "Four Nights with Christ," will begin Monday night, October 21 at 7:30 p. m. All persons interested in renewing the faith in our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, or those who are still seeking to find the true meaning of the life are invited to attend.
The Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross is located on NC 194 midway between Boone and Banner Elk, on the old mission school grounds in Valle Crucis.

Mr. Courtney To Speak At St. Luke's

The Rev. C. Ward Courtney announces that the theme of the Teaching-Preaching Mission at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Boone, from October 27-31, is: "God at Work in History."
On Sunday night the topic will be The Biblical Church; Monday—The Church of the Early Centuries; Tuesday—The Papal Church; Wednesday—Reformation; Counter Reformation; and Thursday—Renewal.
Each topic will be related to present-day needs and problems, rather than waiting until the last night to make the relationship. There is to be a coffee hour following each service for questions and answers.
Saints and sinners invited.

Extension Center To Open Oct. 29

The Rev. J. O. Young of Boone will be teaching in the Seminary Extension Center to be opened in Boone October 29. It was announced this week. He will be teaching the course, "Teaching for Results 115."

The Rev. George Hyler, pastor of the Blowing Rock Baptist Church, will also be teaching at the center. Mr. Hyler will be teaching New Testament 112 which is a survey of the New Testament.

Mr. Young is a graduate of Appalachian State Teachers College and of Louisville Seminary. He has served pastorates at Bakersville and Charlotte.
Mr. Hyler is a graduate of Louisville Baptist Theological Seminary. He is currently serving as evangelistic chairman of the Three Forks Baptist Association, and has done considerable evangelistic work during his ministry. He has served as director of the Red Cross campaign in Blowing Rock for the last two years.

Troutman Will Be Speaker

The Rev. E. F. Troutman, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Boone, will be the guest missionary for the annual Preaching Mission to be held at Bethany Lutheran Church on Big Hill Road.
The mission will begin on Sunday, October 20, and services will be held each evening through Thursday, October 24. All services will begin at 7:15 with a brief period of hymn singing. The Rev. Mr. Troutman will use as his theme for the mission "Preaching For Discipleship." The sermon topics for each evening will be:
Sunday—"Evangelism and Preaching."
Monday—"The Cross and The Resurrection."
Tuesday—"Kinship with Christ."
Wednesday—"Passion and Purpose."
Thursday—"The Bugle Sound."
The annual Homecoming at Bethany will be held on Reformation Sunday, October 27. The Rev. William E. Smith, pastor of Bethany, will bring the morning message. A picnic dinner will be spread following the morning service.
The public is invited to attend all of these services.
One of the ways you can support your church is by supporting your minister, and his program.
The fellow who always greets you with a compliment is overrating you or playing you for a sap.

Homecoming At Laurel Springs

Homecoming will be observed at Laurel Springs Baptist Church October 20.
All former pastors and members are invited, together with all singers who would like to come.
Rev. Dola Dixon will preach at 11 a. m. Lunch will be served at 12:30 with singing in the afternoon.

Mission Study Workshop Slated

Mission study workshop, designed for workers with children and young people, led by Mrs. Earl Petrey, District Director of Children's Work, is Sunday, October 20, from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. at Deerfield Methodist Church.

The world mission study theme for children and youth this year will be "India." The study books and teachers' guides may be purchased at the meeting. Missionary education for pre-school children will be included. The leaders for these sessions are Kindergarten, Mrs. Ford Henson, Villas; Primary, Mrs. John V. Sagar, Elkin, and Mrs. Earl Petrey, Boone; Junior, Mrs. C. B. Hughes, Jr., Yakinville and Mrs. W. H. Key, Sherwood.

If you and your workers cannot attend this workshop, please make an effort to attend the last workshop to be held Sunday, October 27, at Jonesville.

Three briefing conferences on sub-District level to acquaint you with the new curriculum materials, have been planned for all pastors, church school superintendents, W.S.C.S. secretaries of children work, children's division superintendents, other key workers in your children's classes and the one who orders the literature. They are scheduled as follows: Nov. 13, Newland; Nov. 17, Elkin; Nov. 20, Boone. The time 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. It is most important that workers from every church in the district attend one of these briefing conferences.

Calvary Church Breaks Record

Calvary Baptist Church, Morriston, Tenn., whose pastor is Rev. Carl Triplett, native Watauga, has broken all previous records with 686 in Sunday School and 289 in Training Union and with an offering of $1,100 for the building fund. The goal was 500 for Sunday School.
The pastor and superintendent promised to have chicken dinner on the church roof when the goal was reached. Sunday, October 13, Rev. Mr. Triplett and Harold G. Galt had lunch on top of the church.
