

Frat To Assist Homecoming; Sanford Names Adams Is Parade Marshal New Trustees At Appalachian

Charles McLean of Lenoir, president of Chi Lambda Chi at Appalachian State Teachers College, will coordinate the Homecoming Parade and the Homecoming Dance during the festivities on the Boone campus, Oct. 26-27.

CHARLES McLEAN

McLean said that his fraternity will assist with registration of Alumni and parking of cars during Homecoming.

Austin Adams of Boone has been named Parade Marshal for the big parade down Boone's main street and through the college campus. Requests for transportation for college club floats and for dignitaries in the parade should be made to Adams. He will supervise the formation of the parade and be responsible for getting it started on time. He will also supervise the building of floats.

McLean said that awards will be presented for the best float entered in the parade and for the best display on the campus. These awards will be made during the half-time ceremonies at Conrad Stadium.

Those invited to ride in the parade will include college officials, members of the board of trustees, the alumni council and officers.

Chi Lambda Chi has invited Miss Brenda Bost, N. C. Rhododendron Queen, to participate in the parade. Miss Bost is a product of ASTC, and will be back at Appalachian after her year's reign as Rhododendron Queen is over.

Arrangements have been made for six bands to participate in the parade.

Adams said that students have started work on floats and there will be between 10 and 15 floats in the parade.

The theme of this year's homecoming is "Honor the Past and Serve the Present and Future," as we celebrate the 60th anniversary.

McLean said that final plans

Gov. Terry Sanford has appointed two new members and reappointed two others to the Appalachian State Teachers College Board of Trustees.

The college announced that Sanford reappointed E. G. (Red) Lackey of Winston-Salem to his second eight-year term and John P. Frank of Mount Airy also to a second eight-year term. Both terms expire June 30, 1971.

State Rep. Lester P. Martin, Jr., Mocksville attorney, was named to a term expiring June 30, 1967, to succeed John B. Brock of Mocksville, who resigned because of ill health. Brock had served on the board for more than 20 years. He is an attorney and prominent Republican leader.

John H. Vickers, president of the Carolinas Delivery Service, Inc., of Charlotte, was named to an eight-year term expiring June 30, 1971. He succeeds Kidd Brewer of Raleigh whose six-year term had expired.

The college announced that the board held a routine meeting during the week, heard reports and then reorganized.

William J. Conrad of Winston-Salem was re-elected chairman. Frank was elected vice chairman.
