

Halloween Carnival Is Success At Cove Creek High School; Other News

Friday night was a period of fun, excitement and thrills as Cove Creek held its annual Halloween Carnival. The feature booths included bingo, dart throwing, basketball throwing, fishing, weight guessing, horseshoe pitching and horror house.

The door prize, a blanket, was won by Hilda Thomas. Sandy Hodges won the rifle; Linda Church, the girl's watch; Jeanette Byrd, boy's watch.

First prize in the Talent Show went to Donna Townsend and Joe Shore for a Charleston dance; Becky Wilson and Jerry Wallace won second place singing a duet; third place went to the "Clowns."

The evening was climaxed by the presentation of the Harvest Festival court and crowning of the king and queen. The court consisted of Marie Baird, Kay Trivette, Carolyn Reece, David Thomas, Jerry Wallace, and James Baird. Kay and James were crowned Harvest Queen and King by the Principal, Carl Fidler.

Class Beauties

Each of the classes have elected their four class beauties. Pictures of these beauties will be sent to either Andy Griffith or Tennessee Ernie Ford who will select the most attractive girl from each group. Senior beauties are Betty Smith, Hilda Thomas, Betty Norris, and Ann Vannoy. Beauties from the junior class are Linda Church, Tommie Vannoy, Linda Donnelly, and Sandra Hodges. Selected from the sophomore class are Carolyn Reece, Becky Wilson, Janice Aldridge, and Joyce Church. The freshman class chose Karen Anderson, Brenda Storie, Judy Matheson, and Linda Brown.

The Student Council of Cove Creek High School met and selected the Recreation Committee. This committee is in charge of sock hops, recreation during lunch hour and other various types of recreation throughout the school. The committee consists of Jeanne Banner, Becky Wilson, Merle Isaacs, Ann Vannoy, Linda Donnelly, Mary Jo Bingham, Lois Greene, Joan Shore, Ann Yates, Les Marich, Freddy Henson, Cliff Elder, with Sandra Snyder serving as chairman; Steve Yates, co-chairman; and Phyllis Yates, reporter.

As a part of its function, the committee is planning a sock hop on Friday night, November 1, for the student body.

Dr. Michal At Sparta Meeting

Dr. Mary Michal, local Health Director, attended the Alleghany-Ashe Medical Society meeting October 25 in Sparta. Dr. Thomas R. Nichols of Morganton, chairman of the Chronic Disease Committee of the Medical Society of the State of North Carolina, was guest speaker. Dr. Michal presented Dr. Nichols to the group.

The Chronic Disease Program in which our district has received a grant since October 1, 1962, is proving that we can not only improve the physical condition of the chronically ill, but can make life more worth living for them and their families.

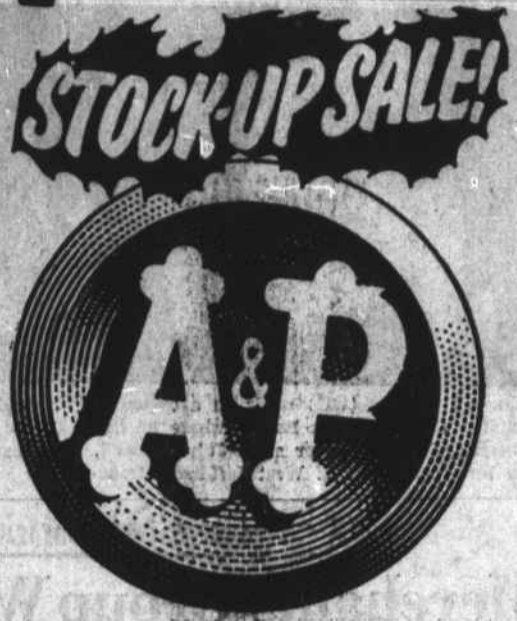

Those who find it difficult to get down to work in the summer usually find it difficult to get down to work in spring autumn and fall, too.
