Blue Ridge Garden Club Meets

The monthly meeting of the Blue Ridge Garden Club was held October 23 at the home of Mrs. B. W. Stallings, with Mrs. G. K. Moose, Mrs. Wayne Richardson, and Mrs. Stallings as joint hostesses. Eighteen members were present.

After a delicious luncheon, the club conducted a business meeting, a highlight of which was the reports of the district meeting.

The district meeting was held in Conover October 16 and was attended by the following members of the Blue Ridge Club: Mrs. W. H. Plemmons, Mrs. R. W. Watkins, Mrs. D. L. Wilcox, Mrs. B. W. Stallings, Mrs. R. H. Harmon, and Mrs. H. M. Cooke. Plans for aiding in the maintenance of the Daniel Boone Garden were discussed, and the club voted to provide one day's wages for the gardener next summer. All the garden clubs in District II are asked to do this.

The Bird Conservation Study was given by Mrs. Cooke, who gave an informative talk on the Blue Jay.

Mrs. Mae Miller, Mrs. H. M. Cooke, and Mrs. B. W. Stallings presented a program on the growing of lilies. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Cooke talked on the different varieties, the planting and cultivation of lilies, and Mrs. Stallings showed colorful slides of gorgeous lilies grown by her and Mrs. Miller.

Since several members of the Blue Ridge Club are also members of the North Carolina Lily Society, and since the State Lily Show will be held in Boone in 1964, this program was received with unusual interest.

Jr. Garden Club Meets

The Mountain Laurel Junior Garden Club met Friday, October 25, at the home of the Jack Lawrences. Mrs. David Spainhour demonstrated the water culture of the paper white narcissus. She said, "To plant put an inch or two of sand or pebbles in the bottom of the dish; set the bulbs upright and place sufficient pebbles around them to hold them in place; fill the dish with water and set in a dark, cool room until plenty of roots have formed, after which bring to a light place."

For part of the meeting the club members raked pine needles which were taken to the Daniel Boone Native Gardens. Mrs. John Hollar and Mrs. Jack Lawrence assisted Mrs. Spainhour. The hostess served ice cream cones to the nine members and four guests present.

Dear Jane And Rachel

Mrs. Mary Reece, who is 78 years old and is now living on Cove Creek, came by recently for a visit. She was born in Watauga County, the daughter of Solomon Younce who moved his family from Zionville to Elk Park when she was 4 years old. Soon after arriving in Elk Park, Mrs. Reece remembers that her father took her for a ride on the narrow gage train. They went to Hampton, Tenn. to attend an Old Soldier's Reunion. She said many people had tried to figure out who named that same train "Tweetie" . . . but she said it was known by that name in 1882. That's interesting!

Tuesday I went on a visiting binge . . . something I haven't done for ages. I went to the hospital to see an old friend, Mrs. D. E. Benfield, who was injured in a fall several weeks ago. She is getting along real well and with her spunk, she'll be out of there soon. Also went especially to see Mrs. W. F. Miller, who has been a patient at Watauga since May, 1962. There I had the good fortune to run into her daughter, Marguerite (Mrs. Robert Brabec), who is now living near San Francisco, Calif. Marguerite is the friend that sends those unusual and very, very interesting Christmas cards each year. It was good to see her again.

While there I learned that another special friend, Bunny Isaacs, had had surgery that morning. She wasn't having visitors at that time, but I went back yesterday for a long visit and she is getting along beautifully. From there I went to see Mrs. C. M. Caudill of Crew, Va., who broke her hip while visiting with her son, Jake, and Ola Caudill recently. She is such a nice person and she is getting along fine. I was glad to have the opportunity to meet her daughter, Mrs. Bess Pryor of Washington, D. C., who is an assistant to Senator Richard Russell. She told me that her sister, Nell Player, whom I have known for years . . . is living a few doozes away from her. Nell was one of the prettiest girls I ever knew . . . and I enjoyed hearing about her.

Some more visiting that I had wanted to do for ages was to go see Mrs. John Barden, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident several weeks ago. I also went to her house last Tuesday and she had gone for a ride. (I'll go back soon.) So, I spied Mrs. Lillian Hopkins in her yard planting tulips and stopped for a chat. I had never been in her new house and she stopped her work to take me on a tour of the house. It is cozy . . . just right for Mrs. Hopkins and I'm mighty glad she is so well situated. Soon Mrs. Clyde Miller and Lucille Hopkins Cooke came in and we had a good time. It was a most enjoyable day. Wonder why I deprive myself of so much pleasure? I could do some visiting each week . . . if I managed properly.

Your daddy and I went to the opening of the new A & P Store in West Jefferson Wednesday afternoon. They had a great opening and the store is real nice. I met Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Andrews, whose husbands are area officials of the com-

Woman's Club Has General Meeting Thurs.

The general meeting of the Boone Woman's Club was held at 7:30 Thursday night, Oct. 24, at the home of Mrs. Wayne Richardson. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Orus Sutton, Mrs. Herman Eggers, Mrs. Glenn Andrews, Mrs. A. E. South and Mrs. Bert Ellis.

The president, Mrs. Lee Reynolds, presided and heard reports from committee chairmen. Mrs. Homer Brown, chairman of the Empty Stocking Fund, said that only toys would be put in the gift packages this year, not clothing and toys as in previous years. The method of distributing the gifts was discussed and it was suggested that the recipients be notified where the gifts will be available. Mrs. R. H. Harmon said the civic organizations should have a list of names so there would be no overlapping in distributing the gifts.

Mrs. Reynolds asked for volunteers to help mail letters for the tuberculosis fund campaign. Those who plan to work were asked to bring a sandwich or covered dish for lunch, and to meet at Boone Methodist church, Nov. 7, at 9 a. m. More help is needed and will be appreciated by the group.

Mrs. D. L. Wilcox, program chairman, introduced Mrs. J. D. Shoemaker, who gave the program on "Strengthening the Arm of Liberty", the Woman's Club theme for the year. She related the history of the Statue of Liberty—how it originated—the problems encountered during the years, including the difficulty of raising money to build it, and current plans for widening its influence, for a museum and other additions. She mentioned the change in the name of its location from Bedloe Island to the present name, Freedom Island.

Refreshments were served during the social hour which followed.

Mrs. Reynolds announced that a general meeting would not be held in November, but that departmental meetings would be held as usual.

Garden Group To Gather
