Meet Your Neighbors At Big Burley — Operated Primarily By Local People

The Big Burley Warehouse is a gigantic new enterprise, covering approximately 4 acres under one roof, and costing more than $100,000.00 to construct. It is completely new and modern in every respect. It offers many unexpected features, such as clean, comfortable rest rooms and cured concrete floors to insure the utmost in protection and safety for your tobacco crop. A reconstructed roof now protects your crop in completely dry storage. The Big Burley Warehouse is owned and operated by men with years of experience in the tobacco business, operating in Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky. Their business is knowing how to get the grower the best price for his crop . . . and knowing how to give him the best possible service. At Big Burley, "The Farmer Is Our First Consideration" is more than a slogan—it's a way of doing business.

Give Big Burley Warehouse Company a try—you'll be glad you did.
