

EDENTON PROSPER

UNITED STATES POST OFFICE

CITY HALL AND F

You Are Invited To Come, Live, Shop, Bank A

Facts About Edenton

Low taxes . . . good government . . . modern improvements. Fine manufacturing and warehouse sites available at unusually low cost.

Rich wealth-producing agricultural back country and profitable fishing port for the Albemarle Sound . . . famous for its Shad and Herring.

Retail shopping and fast developing distributing center for all this section of Eastern Carolina.

A city of beautiful homes and where living conditions will be found ideal and enjoyable.

Healthful climate, moderate temperature year round.

Splendid active social and civic organizations.

Aggressive merchants and very strong financial institutions.

Largest peanut market in North Carolina and second largest in the world.

Home of the shad and herring fisheries and fish roe canneries.

Truly a fine city of exceptional opportunities and advantages.

Centrally located in the famous Albemarle section of North Carolina in as fine and climate not excelled anywhere—and thriving on favorable opportunities from natu veloping and prosperous city, where every modern convenience and facility to end industrial investors a veritable “land of practical opportunity.”

Edenton is truly a little city of independent, progressive and industrious home owners, possessing a fine, true spirit of wholesome hospitality, enjoying all the advantages of a city many times its size, in addition to a combination of sport, recreation and out-door life seldom found anywhere.

Churches, representing practically all leading denominations are located within its borders, as well as one of the finest public school systems as will be found in the State, highly trained and adequate fire and police department, modern water supply of 100% pure water, sewerage system, library, good merchants, dependable and adequate banking facilities, plus a citizenry of high standards and character combined, offers newcomers every advantage for contented and enjoyable living.

Unusual OPPORTUNITIES are offered by EDENTON to people of means desiring to locate in a community entirely friendly to invested capital, and where will be found an abundance of unusually high type, native-born labor, with a spotless labor record which testifies to the quality and the sympathy and cooperation of the community as a whole.

FOR FURTHER

AND F

EDE

NORTE

Edento

Chamber

Don't Fail To Visit This Fine Old T Town Of Edenton

J. H. McMU

COUN

L. P. Williams

G. M

W. M. Wilkins

O. B