

Dr. Tedder Begins Dog Vaccination On Monday, May 1

Law Requires Every Dog In County to Be Treated

COSTS 50 CENTS
Schedule Presented For Information of Dog Owners

On Monday, May 1, Dr. P. W. Tedder will begin his schedule of vaccinating dogs in Chowan County against rabies. This year, Dr. Tedder, a licensed veterinarian, has charge of this work, which is compulsory, throughout the entire county and he asks for full cooperation of dog owners so that the purpose of the law will be fulfilled. The law requires all dogs to be vaccinated, the price for which is 50 cents, and any dogs not so treated are subject to be killed by the sheriff.

Dr. Tedder is thoroughly familiar with the work and in emphasizing its importance says that by the simple act of vaccinating a dog, a human life may be saved.
