THIS WEEK'S BIBLE THOUGHT:

SOUND SPIRITUAL LAW: And his mercy is on them, that fear him from generation to generation.— Luke 1:50.

Your Duty To Vote

According to reports coming from those who have traveled over the entire First District in connection with the forthcoming primary election, there is a very noticeable lack of interest in the election, the opinion being advanced that voters generally are more concerned with the present war and war conditions than they are with politics. The Herald would not criticize anyone for being vitally interested in the war, but at the same time, the placing of men in offices of public trust is of no account to be entirely ignored. It is a duty and a privilege still enjoyed, but which surely will pass away if America does not win the war, and therefore should be exercised next Saturday by every voter who can possibly go to the polls. True, it is what is termed an off-year, when there is no Governor or President to be elected, but just the same, as much care, and even more, should be taken in filling minor offices closer at home.

Unlike some newspaper editors, The Herald editor frankly admits he doesn't know who will be elected next Saturday. And to be a little more frank, those who make such cocksure predictions that Herbert Bonner, for instance, will win the Congressional race without the necessity of a second primary are merely tooting their own horn for their favorite candidate, and in so many words, are only expressing the hope that such will be the case.

The result of the election will not be determined until the votes are counted, and when any one man pretends to know how the majority of voters will cast their ballots in an area as large as the First District, well, it just isn't so, and few people can be fooled into believing that it is so.

While The Herald has been impartial to the candidates in the election so far as the news columns are concerned, it is no secret that the editorial policy has been in opposition to Herbert Bonner and for reasons heretofore made known. And further, whether Bonner is elected, or if it's Marvin Blount or Jack Edwards, The Herald will be just as eager to praise, just as ready to criticize, and even willing to make a request in the interest of Chowan County irrespective of who the Congressman may be.

Chowan County is, or at least should be, a part of the First District at other than the particular time to seek votes.

Maybe Too Hasty

It is not at all surprising for The Independent of Elizabeth City to find reasons for not voting for Herbert Leary, who is a candidate for the State Senate. The last reason advanced for opposing Mr. Leary is the argument that he was present at roll call only a few more than 50 per cent. of the times he was called upon to record his vote.

The Independent editor admits in his editorial that his information was secured after a rather hasty perusal of the Senate Journal for the 1941 session of the General Assembly, which may have been why he over-

The Chowan Trio, composed of Mrs. Gordon Blow, Miss Maybelle Edwards and Miss Louise Wilson, did themselves proud at the Great Council meeting of Red Men in Elizabeth City last week. The girls were at their best and won the admiration of the largest audience they ever sang to. Though the trio has been asked to sing at an increasing number of affairs, it now looks as though the group will be busted up. Miss Maybelle Edwards, who for eight years has taught at Chowan High School, has resigned to accept a teaching position in Virginia, and therefore, will be unable to take her part in the trio. So that unless a third member can be secured to take Miss Edwards' place, the trio has about sung itself out.

Elsewhere in this issue appears a poem which was written by Mrs. Julien Wood during the first World War at the request of the Authors Committee. It was written to stimulate sale of Liberty Bonds, which, with only a few changes, is reprinted in the interest of Defense Bonds which we are all expected to buy. And incidentally a poem written by Mrs. Wood a few weeks ago should have carried an explanation to be better appreciated. The poem was written after the World War when it became apparent that the Germans were beginning a propaganda campaign, leading to another attempt to rule the world.

Here's one who hasn't had time to go fishing since the season opened last week, but already the fish stories are going the rounds. Quite an odd story is at the expense of the Rev. Frank Cale. The way I got it, he and Rodney Harrell were trying their luck and while oozing along in a boat, they spied several large schools of small fish and because bait is bait, the preacher decided he would stab into the schools with a net as they were moving along. He waited for a good chance and, all of a sudden scooped down, but upon raising the net from the water he lost his equilibrium or inertia or sumpin' for he suddenly squatted into an open fishing tackle box. When he got to his feet the seat of his breeches was "decorated" with all sorts of artificial baits. In fact, it was necessary to cut some of 'em from the goods. I'm just wondering if it was necessary, for him to walk home backwards.

And speaking about fishing, Sheriff Bunch says there are only 11 days of good fishing during the year. But the bad part of it all is that you are supposed to go every day in order to find out what days these are.

Mrs. Elton Forehand lost a hair bracelet which may not appear very valuable to the finder, but is cherished by Mrs. Forehand. It is a family heirloom and for that reason a price cannot be placed upon it. So that if anyone finds it she will be a lot happier than she has been since she discovered its loss.

Preacher Wells sent a letter the other day from Fort Worth, Texas, saying he had just returned from San Antonio and planned to spend a few days at Mineral Well before returning to Edenton. At the bottom of the letter in quotations appeared "The season is open." Gosh darn, is that guy fishing down in Texas, too?

looked the particularly outstanding part Mr. Leary took during the session. If newspaper articles and general state-wide comment mean anything, Mr. Leary was undoubtedly one of the outstanding Senators during the session, and if the work he did was done in half the time, The Independent ought to be willing to admit that Chowan's candidate is an exceptional Senator, indeed.

Another argument against Leary is that he relinquished his right to the office when he withdrew from the Congressional race to be a candidate for re-election. It would have been interesting to know what sort of arguments would have been concocted by the Elizabeth City newspapers to use against Mr. Leary had he remained a candidate for Congress.

The Board also has announced that each consumer holding a War Ration Book shall be entitled to additional amounts of sugar, not to exceed five pounds, per year, for use in connection with canning or preserving fresh fruits or vegetables for consumption in the home. The application, therefore, shall be made to the Board upon OPA Form No. R-315 by the consumer personally. This form is available at the local office.

Duties of the Board are rapidly mounting and for this reason, coupled with inadequate office space, lack of equipment and clerical help, members of the Board respectfully ask that the secretary, Miss Willie Love Morgan, be not interrupted in her official duties any more than is

Because of the accumulation of so much work, the Board has decided to close the office every Tuesday and Thursday at 12 o'clock noon in order to allow the secretary time to attend to the routine duties of the office, such as filing and correspondence.
