

County's Oldest Lady Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Ellen Byrum 92 Years Old Thursday, March 11

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Byrum entertained at a lovely birthday dinner at their home Thursday of last week in honor of Mr. Byrum's mother, Mrs. Ellen Byrum, who celebrated her 92nd birthday. For the occasion the honoree's room was so decorated as to resemble a fairy-land with beautiful flowers artistically arranged. Numerous cards were received from friends conveying congratulations upon reaching the 92nd milestone.

The centerpiece on the table was white carnations and white gladioli together with white candles. An attractive birthday cake, prepared by Mrs. T. C. Byrum and decorated with small silk flags, especially pleased the elderly Mrs. Byrum, for she is an unusually patriotic person. She is Chowan County's oldest citizen and has lived through four wars. In the present conflict are four of her grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She has 31 grandchildren, 43 great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrum's guests for the birthday dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Leary and daughter, Miss Mary Leary, Mrs. R. N. Privott, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goodwin, Mrs. Riddick Chappell of Hertford, Mrs.

Carroll Byrum and son, Hiller Fahey Byrum, Mrs. Roy Furry, the Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Wells. Mrs. Byrum's oldest son, George P. Byrum, and wife were unable to be present as they are spending the winter in Florida.
