MRS. HOLOMAN ENTERTAINS

Mrs. J. Paul Holoman was hostess at an informal dinner party at her home on Wednesday evening, October 27, honoring Mrs. Mabel F. White, of Washington, D. C., who spent last week in town as the guest of friends.

Covers were laid for six. A delicious dinner was served by the hostess to her guests, which included Misses Fannie Sue Sayers, Lena Jones, Mrs. E. T. Rawlinson, Mrs. Roy E. Leary and Mrs. Mabel F. White.

HORAN—HARRELL

Mrs. O. J. Harrell announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Jessie Mae Harrell, of Edenton and Norfolk, to Jimmie Horan, son of Mrs. Mary L. Horan, of Portsmouth, Va.

The wedding took place at the home of the groom's pastor on the evening of October 28, at 8 o'clock.

The bride wore a blue suit and tan accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The families of the bride and groom attended the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Horan will make their home in Portsmouth Va.

HARRIS—WARD

The marriage of Miss Sarah Louise Ward, daughter of the late Ernest L. and Elizabeth Ward, to Edgar E. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Harris, of Statesville, took place on Friday evening, October 29, at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride on West Queen Street. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, the Rev. E. L. Wells, before an improvised altar of evergreens, white chrysanthemums and lighted candles. The double-ring ceremony was used.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was given by the aunts of the bride, Miss Nannie Ward and Mrs. Mary Ward Sawyer. At the punch bowl, Mrs. J. Frank White, Jr., presided, and Miss Beulah Perry greeted the guests at the door.

The bride was attired in a dress of sea-blue, trimmed in fuchsia, and her accessories were of fuchsia. Her shoulder corsage was made up of orchids.

Mrs. Harris is a graduate of Guilford College, and has taught Home Economics in several of the State schools during the past few years. At the present, she is a member of the faculty of the Weldon City School.

Mr. Harris received his education at Appalachian State College. He is manager of the D. P. Store in Edenton.

Surgical Dressings Unit Given Praise For Splendid Work

Mrs. W. H. Coffield Receives Letter From Headquarters

Mrs. W. H. Coffield, surgical dressing unit chairman, is in receipt of a letter from headquarters complimenting the splendid work turned out from the local unit, and thanking the workers for their continued cooperation in getting the dressings and bandages shipped in time to meet the contract with the War Department.

Mrs. Coffield's report for work finished in October is as follows: 10,400 four by four dressings, 5,400 four by eight, and 1,050 eight by ten combination pads. These have been shipped to headquarters, where they will be distributed to the places far and near, where they are greatly needed.

For the month of October, Mrs. John Badham gave 31 1/4 hours of volunteer service in the class. This was the highest number of hours given by any one during the month. The highest number of hours in a day were made by Mrs. Cassie Cox, and a close second was Mrs. J. H. Holmes. Mrs. Cox made 4 1/2 hours, and Mrs. Holmes' record showed only fifteen minutes less than the record made by Mrs. Cox.

Mrs. Coffield is greatly pleased over the records made from time to time by the class. "There is no time in sight when we can let up on such an important and greatly needed work," she states. "The need of more volunteer helpers is still of great importance. Our work on the home front acts as a thermometer on the morale of those who are on the fighting front."

Month Set Aside To Cut More Pulpwood

Boy and girl in the armed service means more than just an appeal to patriotism. It is an opportunity to back up that boy or girl with supplies, equipment and food. It may even save his life.

Mr. Earle recalled that the only apparent attempt made by the Japs to bomb the mainland of the United States in this war was the dropping of a bomb in the vast pulpwood producing areas of Oregon.

"If the Japs want our timber so badly, we ought to oblige," he said. "But let's give it to them in the form of bullets, bombs, and shells. One way we can pay our respects to the Japanese and German warlords is to cut a cord of pulpwood for every boy in the service and thus give them a double-barrelled discharge from America's two battle-lines—the fighting front and the home front."

MRS. WHITE HONORED

On Friday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock, Mrs. Marvin W. Jackson entertained a number of friends at her home at an afternoon tea, honoring Mrs. Mabel F. White, a recent visitor in town.

The house was beautifully decorated in autumn cut flowers and autumn leaves.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to her guests.

57 JAILED IN OCTOBER

Fifty-seven persons were lodged in Chowan County's jail during October, according to the monthly report of Jailer Shelton Moore. These prisoners were confined for from one to 20 days, and the expense involved amounted to $145.70, which includes jail and turnkey fees.

New Ceiling Prices

Poultry

Farmers in Eastern North Carolina who sell live poultry may charge the following prices: When selling poultry to haulers, wholesalers or retailers who pick up the poultry at the farm, they may charge for all young poultry, (i. e., broilers, fryers and roasters) 28 1/2c per pound; for hens of all weights, 25c per pound, and for roosters 21c per pound. When making delivered sales to retail stores, hotels, or restaurants, they may charge for all young poultry 30c per pound; for hens, 26 1/2c per pound; and for roosters, 22 1/2c per pound. When selling to individual consumers, they may charge 36c per pound for all young poultry; 32c per pound for hens and 27c per pound for roosters.

Butter

When farmers sell ungraded butter in pound or half-pound prints or rolls wrapped in parchment paper and delivered to a retail store, the ceiling price is 40c per pound. When selling to an individual consumer the ceiling price is 44c per pound.

Eggs

During the month of November, a farmer who sells ungraded or assorted eggs directly to an ultimate consumer (housewife) may charge 53c per dozen. If the eggs are packed in retail cartons the seller may add 2 per dozen. If he delivers them to a retailer the ceiling price is 45.2c per dozen. Information on grading can be obtained from the Division of Markets, North Carolina Department of Agriculture, Raleigh.

IF HEAD COLDS HANG ON

DO THIS! To relieve discomforts, one of the best things you can do is put a good spoonful of home-tested Vicks VapoRub in a bowl of boiling water.

Then feel the wonderful relief come as you breathe in the steaming medicated vapors that penetrate to the cold-congested upper breathing passages! See how this soothes irritation, quiets coughing, and helps clear the head-bringing grand comfort.

FOR ADDED RELIEF... rub throat, chest and back with VapoRub at bedtime. Vicks VapoRub works for hours—2 ways at once—to bring relief from distress. Try it.
