

Miss Betty Wales Weds
Lieut. Charles H. Silver

An impressive marriage was solemnized at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening, December 18, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, when Miss Betty Winston Wales became the bride of Lieut. Charles Hinton Silver, USA, with the Rev. George F. Hill, rector of Christ Church, Elizabeth City, officiating. Mrs. W. H. Coffield played the wedding music and "O, Perfect Love" was sung by Mrs. J. J. Oliver, cousin of the bride, of South Orange, N. J. White chrysanthemums, snapdragons and Southern smilax made a beautiful background for the candlelit ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of ivory satin, fashioned along princess lines, with long sleeves and long train. Her fingertip illusion veil was arranged from a Mary Stuart cap of old Rose Point lace, and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of gardenias, white roses and white lilac. Miss Anna Wood and Miss Mary White, maids of honor, wore shoulder length veils and white dresses with net skirts and lace bodices, and carried red roses. Miss Elizabeth Silver of Raleigh, sister of the groom, attended as bridesmaid, in a white dress of net and satin with Juliet cap, and carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

The groom had as his best man Private Sprague Silver, USMC, of Raleigh and Chapel Hill. The ushers were James E. Wood, Cadet Benbury Wood, Lieut. George C. Wood, Jr., and Cadet J. Meredith Jones, Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Wales. She graduated from St. Mary's School, Raleigh, and attended a secretarial school in Orange, N. J. The groom is the son of Mrs. H. Sprague Silver and the late Mr. Silver, of "Midway Plantation," Raleigh. He attended State College and has just returned from 15 months' duty in the South Pacific. After a wedding trip they will be in Santa Ana, Cal., where Lieut. Silver has been transferred for training in the U. S. Air Corps.

After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents for intimate friends of the family and out of town guests. Mr. and Mrs. John Wood extended greetings at the door. The wedding party formed a receiving line in the living room, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Wales, the latter in black crepe trimmed in sequins with an orchid corsage, and Mrs. Silver, mother of the groom, who wore a black beaded dress with orchids. Former Governor and Mrs. J. C. B. Ehringhaus assisted in receiving in the room with the wedding party, and others assisting in the house were Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wood, Judge and Mrs. Richard D. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Warren, Ensign and Mrs. Henry Colton and Mrs. Gordon Price. Miss Sophie Wood and Miss Margaret Pruden served punch. Serving in the dining room were Misses Evelyn and Kathryn Brown, Helen Willis, Mrs. Richard Weeks and Miss Virginia Bydum. The dining room table was covered with an exquisite lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white roses and snapdragons in a silver urn. The cake was cut with the groom's sword. The house was decorated throughout with snapdragons, calla lilies and a profusion of Southern smilax.

Preceding the event many social courtesies were extended to Miss Wales and her wedding party. On Wednesday night Misses Evelyn and Kathryn Brown gave a bridge supper at their home, "Albania," and presented the honoree with china in her chosen pattern. Mrs. Gordon Price and Mrs. Richard Weeks entertained at bridge on Thursday and presented Miss Wales with a gift of crystal and silver.

On Friday immediately preceding the rehearsal Mrs. Junius Davis and Mrs. Joseph Conger entertained the wedding party at a coffee hour. On Friday night Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wood and former Governor and Mrs. J. C. B. Ehringhaus gave a beautiful buffet supper at "Greenfield Plantation." On the day of the wedding Miss Anna Wood and Miss Mary White entertained at a luncheon at historic "Hayes," the home of Miss Wood, honoring the wedding party and out of town guests.

Attending the wedding from out of town were Mrs. Sprague Silver, Miss Elizabeth Silver, Private Sprague Silver, Hon. and Mrs. J. C. B. Ehringhaus of Raleigh, Mrs.

Frank P. Graham and Mrs. J. P. Watters of Chapel Hill, Ensign and Mrs. Henry Colton of Norfolk, Miss Elvira Cheatham of Henderson, Mrs. John J. Oliver of South Orange, N. J., Miss Nancy Jernigan of Ahoskie, Miss Edla Walker of Elizabeth City, Lieut. Jack Nolan of San Diego, Cal., Lieut. and Mrs. Edmund Forehand of New River, J. G. Margette of Como, Lieut. C. R. Jordan of Bogota, N. J., and the Rev. George Hill of Elizabeth City.
