

Allowances Made To Returned Veterans In Farming For Selves

Special Feature In G. I. Bill Designed to Get Started

Veterans coming back to our farms from the war who would like to set themselves up as independent farmers will find that the readjustment allowance program under the G. I. Bill has a special feature designed to help them get started on their own. These are the monthly payments available to veterans in self-employment.

It works this way: Any veteran who is fully engaged in a business of his own may receive a money payment covering the difference between his net income and $100 for the previous calendar month. Many of our farmer-veterans, for the months their crops and livestock bring no returns receive the whole $100.

Purpose-Readjustment

To help veterans get established or become reestablished in civilian occupations after their armed service, the G. I. Bill set up a system of allowances to be paid veterans during their readjustment. In North Carolina the Unemployment Compensation Commission handles these readjustment allowances for the Veterans Administration. Veterans should apply to the unemployment compensation claims agents located in the United States Employment Service offices throughout the state.

The allowances are of two kinds: those for the veterans who are trying to find the right job; and those for the veterans who go to work for themselves but don't clear as much as $100 a month at it. A veteran may apply for these any time within two years after his discharge or two years after the end of the war, whichever is the latter date (but not more than five years after the war has been declared over.) Of course, each veteran has to decide for himself when he comes home whether he wants to go to work right away and claim allowances till he gets set—either in a job or for himself—or whether he wants to let them stand as a reserve against a time he might need them more in months to come.

Now what is meant by full self-employment in agriculture under the G. I. Bill? The case of each veteran is considered separately.

The purpose of the G. I. Bill is clear in that it was meant to assist veterans who are attempting to set themselves up in business. The law specifies that an individual must be fully engaged in an independent operation for profit, and in addition, must be doing those things which are reasonably calculated to promote the success of his undertaking. The fact that a veteran devotes his full time to farming activities is not alone sufficient to qualify him as self-employed. A person may be employed on the farm in the same manner as he may be employed in a factory, working at all times under supervision, though the method of determining his compensation may differ. A person working as an employee on the farm is not self-employed within the meaning of the law.

Mrs. Anne Jenkins Plans To Operate New Beauty Salon

Veteran Beautician Will Be Located In Citizens Bank Building

Mrs. Anne Speight Jenkins has tendered her resignation as beautician at the Marinette Beauty Shoppe as of tomorrow (Friday) and plans to open a shop of her own in the Citizens Bank Building on or before March 18.

Mrs. Jenkins is Edenton's oldest beautician, having operated Anne's Beauty Salon for several years before leaving Edenton. Since returning to Edenton she has been connected with the Marinette Beauty Shoppe.

L. E. Francis Planning 2,500 - Bushel Sweet Potato Curing House

Howard M. Ellis, Extension Agricultural Engineer of State College, Raleigh, with white and colored County Agents, visited at the farm of L. E. Francis last week for the purpose of assisting in plans to construct a 2,500-bushel sweet potato curing house.

Mr. Francis has a 1,000-bushel house well constructed but it is inadequate to meet his needs. Every effort will be made to help Mr. Francis construct his new house on the basis of most modern plans, partly keeping in mind good insulation and proper heating. Mr. Francis is very cooperative and willing to follow recommended plans.

Faye Jessup Among Group In Charge Of Management At ECTC

During the past six weeks the Home Management House at East Carolina Teachers College has been in charge of nine students of the Home Economics Department of the college. Among these was Miss Faye Jessup of Tyner.

The students, who learned the art of homemaking by practical experience, planned and prepared meals, purchased supplies, managed finances, entertained guests and kept in order the large and attractively furnished house located on the West Campus of the College. Mrs. Adelaide Bloxton, chairman of the Home Economics Department, directed the activities of the students and served as counselor.

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

Fire Badly Burns Edenton Residence

Edenton, Feb. 22—A fire, which had gained considerable headway when observed, caused an approximate damage of $1,000 or more to a residence on West Queen street yesterday afternoon around 3 o'clock, when both fire trucks answered the call, and checked the blaze. The fire, according to Chief R. K. Hall, originated from the electric wiring around the switch box on the back porch, and even though the house had recently been re-wired, there was a possible defect, which caused the starting of the blaze. Neighbors from far and near tried to aid in removing furniture and movable properties, when it seemed that the entire structure would be destroyed. The kitchen, back porch, upper story back rooms and living room walls were damaged to a great extent by flames and smoke.
