

4-H Club Camp Site On Roanoke Island

Abandoned Air Station Provides Ideal Facilities For Activities

County Agent C. W. Overman joined with members of the State Staff consisting of Director I. O. Schaub, District Agent E. Troy Ferguson, and State 4-H Club Leader L. R. Harrell in a trip to Roanoke Island for the purpose of aiding the local committee in working out arrangements for a 4-H Camp at the abandoned Naval Air Station on Roanoke Island. After looking over the buildings and facilities that are proposed for use the opinion was advanced that it can be made one of the most desirable camps in this section of the country for rural youth encampments. The buildings are quite adequate, the play ground is ample, the setting almost perfect, and the bathing facilities are very good.

R. S. Smith, Dare County agent and Miss Strawn, Dare County home agent, are very active in making arrangements for the opening of the Camp on June 3. Chowan County and Perquimans County have made arrangements to join together and 4-H groups will have an encampment at the Roanoke Island Camp on the week of July 8-13. Mr. Smith says other counties are filling his schedule very fast. This camp will be a great asset to the 4-H club program in the eastern part of North Carolina.

TAX COLLECTIONS

Sheriff J. A. Bunch reports 1945 taxes collected during April as $4,661.21, which brings total 1945 taxes collected to May 1 to $766,031.86. Collections were stimulated somewhat the latter part of April due to advertising delinquents, a list of which appears in this issue of The Herald.

DISCHARGED FROM NAVY

Maurice Bunch, RM3c, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bunch, returned home Wednesday of last week after receiving his discharge from the U. S. Navy. Young Bunch was in the service 30 months, about 24 of which were overseas duty. He was stationed at Oahu, Hawaii, when he began his trip home to be discharged.

Mrs. Ellen White Dies Following Brief Illness

Mrs. Ellen Bunch White, widow of the late John W. White and daughter of the late James and Mary Bunch, died Sunday morning at 10:45 after a short illness. Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. John R. Parrish of Portsmouth, Mrs. Paul M. Ober and Miss Lizzie White of Edenton; three step-daughters, Mrs. T. R. Hollowell of Norfolk, Mrs. E. H. Bunch and Mrs. G. L. Parrish of Edenton; one step-son, H. S. White of Edenton, a sister and three brothers and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by the Rev. W. C. Francis, pastor of the Rocky Hook Baptist Church, of which Mrs. White was a member. He was assisted by W. J. Berryman. Interment was made in the family cemetery.

Harry L. Smith Dies On Way To Hospital

Harry Lee Smith passed away Wednesday night of last week, death occurring at Ahoskie while enroute to Durham to enter Duke Hospital. He was 59 years old, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smith, and had been in bad health since Christmas. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the graveside in Beaver Hill Cemetery with the Rev. H. F. Surratt, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiating.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Effie Miller Smith, and three daughters, Mrs. Edmund Burke of Mt. Airy, Miss Louise Smith of Edenton and Mrs. W. D. O'Neal of Atlanta, Ga. A brother, Herbert Smith of Ahoskie, two sisters, Mrs. Frank Miller of Edenton and Mrs. Elsie Mansfield of Lakeland, Fla., and two grand-children also survive.

Pallbearers were Herbert Smith, Lee Miller, Dan Miller, Willie Miller, Reuben Miller and Frank Miller.

Fourth Grade Group Entertains Rotarians

Rotarians were delightfully entertained Thursday at their regular meeting by a group of pupils of Miss Lena Jones' fourth grade class when they presented a skit "The Seven Dwarfs Visit Snow White." The youngsters performed like veterans with the entertainment featured by two numbers, "The Travel" and "Some Sunday Morning," sung by Gene Saunders and Peach Perry. The entertainment was previously presented at a chapel program.

Margery Webb took the part of Snow White, Barbara Dail as the witch and the following as dwarfs: Larry Lowe, Jesse Owens, Jr., Douglas Holland, Fred Ashley, Jr., Carlton Corbett, Gene Saunders, Jr., and George Jones. Teddy Wright was stage manager.

Miss Norma Perry In May Day Celebration

Miss Norma Perry, student at the Woman's College at Greensboro, was a member of the queen's court at May Day ceremonies held Saturday afternoon in the amphitheatre beside the college lake. All the traditions of an English May festival were carried out in a program preceding the crowning of Miss Priscilla Moore Brinkley of Thomasville as queen.
